4 Die in West Indies Collision of 2 Ships

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP)—At least four persons were killed and several reported missing today after a collision between two tankers off Curacao, Dutch West Indies.

Both ships were reported afloat and the count of dead and missing was being compiled as victims were being landed.

The Argentine tanker Los Pozos and the Venezuelan tanker Tucupita collided in Curacao by about 4 a. m. The Los Pozos, 5810 gross tons, is owned by the Argentine Navigation Co.

Reports to the Coast Guard here said the British motorship San Eliseo was standing by the burning tankers and attempting to get her small boats near enough to help rescue the crews.

The Coast Guard said the air was panned with distress calls and relays in the area, clouding positive identification of the ships and details of their condition.

The Merritt-Chapman and Scott Corp., owners of the ocean-going tug Killierig, which ran aground about one mile off Morant point, Jamaica, E. W. L. said the crew had been taken off but that the master and mates remained aboard awaiting a tug sent from Key West, Fla., to refloat the Killierig. The crew was estimated at 40 or more.

A company spokesman said the Killierig was reported in no danger.

United Shoe Machinery Sued Here as Monopoly

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Atty.-Gen. Clark today charged the United Shoe Machinery Corp. of Boston with establishing a monopoly in production of machinery for making shoes.

Clark announced a civil anti-trust suit was filed this morning in the U. S. District Court at Boston, under the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

A Justice Department statement said the suit seeks to compel the corporation to sell all its plants used in manufacture of shoe factory supplies and some of its plants manufacturing shoe machinery and tanning machinery "and to offer to sell its machinery to shoe manufacturers instead of only leasing, as it does now, and to make available to its competitors all patents and know-how relating to shoe machinery."

The announcement said the company manufactures over 90 per cent of most of the important types of shoe machinery "and is the only company in this country which can completely equip a shoe factory with all necessary machinery."

The attorney-general said the corporation's alleged monopoly "has destroyed the independence of the shoe industry of the United States."

Asst. Atty. Gen. Sonnett, whose anti-trust division was instructed by Clark several months ago to concentrate on any evidences of monopolistic practices in the food, clothing and housing fields, said in a statement that United Shoe Machinery Corp. "has acquired 4172 patents since 1930."

"It uses only 363 of these in machines introduced since 1930," Sonnett asserted. "Most of its patents have been laid away on the shelf."

"United has compelled manufacturers to use obsolete shoe machinery, thus retarding the introduction of mass production techniques in the manufacture of shoes and preventing reductions in shoe manufacturing costs by the use of modern machinery."

Jews Demand British 'Fire' Arab Legion

JERUSALEM, Dec. 15 (AP)—Jewish leaders called upon the Palestine government today to order immediate evacuation from Palestine of all Trans-Jordan Arab legion troops, a detachment of which yesterday machinegunned a truck convoy near Tel Aviv, killing 14 Jews and wounding 15 others.

The Arab Legion forces, which are officered by Britons, are on loan to the Palestine government for police duty in the Holy Land. Demands for withdrawal of the forces coincided with a grenade attack on a truckload of Arab Legion troops near the Mustapha police barracks in Jerusalem. One soldier was injured in the bombing.

A spokesman for Hagana declared that "failure of the British to evacuate these foreign troops will be considered a British provocation against the Jewish defense forces."

A Jewish Agency official, who also demanded withdrawal of the Arab Legion, said legionnaires had attacked Jews in at least three places yesterday.

Overland transport throughout Palestine—already badly disrupted—was further demoralized by the convoy attack yesterday. Food supplies in Jerusalem and other cities ran low as the Holy Land began to feel the pinch of broken communication resulting from 16 days of bitter communal strife that has claimed 242 lives.

Human Chain Pulls Boy, 12 From Pond

FRAMINGHAM, Dec. 15—Twenty school boys and four workmen at the Framingham Union Hospital today formed a human life-line across the ice on Larned Pond to rescue a 12-year-old junior high school student struggling in the water 185 feet from shore.

With the aid of a pole and 50 feet of rope the rescuers hauled Vernon Springer, 12, Richardson circle, Framingham, out of the frigid waters.

Cries of "I'm going, I'm going" were heard by the four men engaged in installing new equipment in the boiler room of the hospital. Running to the pond the men saw two school chums, Harold Thustle, 12, and Lewis Durden, 12, both of Hartford st., Framingham, trying to reach the boy.

Raymond Ennis, Winchester st., Medford, one of the workers, rushed back to his truck, took the pole and then length of rope and crawled out on the ice followed by Robert Coulmobe, Front st., Marlboro; Matthew Scirpoli, Plainfield st., Shrewsbury, and James Gargan, Clark st., Ashland.

The men pushed the rope out to the Durden boy and he moved it beyond him to where Springer was struggling.

boosted prices of some goods to 10 or 15 times their prewar level. War profiteers were singled out in the decree, announced last night, as a target for an involved program of "currency reform."

Coupled with the revaluation was the abolition of rationing for food and industrial goods. Moreover, sharp price cuts were announced.

The International News Service reports that the new prices are designed to cut the food budget of Soviet families by 50 per cent.

NEW PRICE LIST

The new price list was published in Pravda. It showed bread and cereals, macaroni and beer reduced 12 per cent, sugar prices lowered by 80 per cent, butter prices cut by more than two-thirds, and meat prices cut by a little more than half.

Pravda also published pictures of the new banknotes which will be issued beginning tomorrow. They are larger than the old rubles and colored grey and violet.

An adjustment between "the existing high commercial prices (those paid in non-rationed stores) and the excessively low prices of rationed supplies was ordered in a wide variety of other supplies, including milk, eggs, tea, fabrics, footwear and clothing."

(This suggested the great bulk of the Russian population would be paying more.)

VALUE OF RUBLE

(Officially, the ruble has been worth 18 cents in exchange with United States money, but there has been no free exchange. A more realistic ratio of rubles to dollars has been the diplomatic rate—diplomats were able to get 12 rubles for $1 in Moscow. Still another value was placed on the ruble by Harold Stassen after his visit to Soviet Russia. He said it was worth about a nickel.)

(The decreed cash exchange for unbanked rubles is equivalent to a swap of dollars for dimes, but the new prices of goods give the "dimes" new value.)

The conversion rates for the ruble, aside from cash presented for exchange, is on a sliding scale up from one old ruble for one new one.

Pre-1947 internal loans were ordered merged into a single state debt, "the exchange to be effected on a basis of three rubles in previous loans for one ruble in the new unified loan." But "Treaty obligations between the U.S.S.R. and foreign states remain unchanged."

REVALUATION RATES

Deposits of up to 3000 rubles in savings banks and the State bank will be revalued at "one ruble for one ruble." Deposits totaling more will be converted to the rate of one-for-one on the first 3000 rubles, three for two on the next 7000 and three-for-one on all above 10,000.

"Payoff of current accounts of cooperative enterprises and organizations as well as of collective farms," the decree said, "are to be revalued at the rate of five rubles of the old currency to four of the new currency."

CALLED WAR SACRIFICE

While the decree spoke of the reform as a war-induced sacrifice, it said the rate of wages of workers and employees, "far from being reduced, are, on the contrary, being increased, since the commercial prices are being reduced."

Police Nab 2 Yeggs In Wild Cafe Battle

Two State Prison parolees, trapped during an attempted safe break in a Harrison ave., South End; restaurant office, were captured early today after a wild melee in which they and four detectives were injured.

The captured pair were subdued only after a savage struggle in which they wielded burglar tools and steel bars while detectives struck back at them with night sticks and flashlights. The men were just reaching for $1200 in the safe when the detectives surprised them.

The two men, who gave their names as Nicholas Gerargery, 33, Willow st., Cambridge, and Charles W. Johnson, 33, Milton st., Arlington, appeared in the headquarters lineup today and admitted they had gone to the restaurant office to break open the safe.

DENY LOOKOUT INVOLVED
Both denied a third man was involved as a lookout but Lieut. James V. Crowley said police were seeking a Cambridge man as a possible participant.

"If we had a lookout do you think we'd be here?" asked Gerargery.

The pair also denied being involved in previous safe breaks in recent weeks but Lieut. Crowley ordered them held for further questioning. They were expected to be arraigned in court tomorrow.

The North End safe break was discovered by Myer Shapiro, 40, proprietor of the market, when he arrived to open for business early today. He discovered the door padlock missing and the door jimmied open.

Inside, the safe, its door ripped off, was found in a large refrigerator, where it had been dragged 35 feet from the office. Burglar tools were found scattered near by and were examined for fingerprints.

Two men arrested in the South End restaurant office were trapped when William Joseph, part owner, arrived with his cook to open the place for the day.

Both men heard loud noises emanating from the second floor office, and they tiptoed away from the front door and hurried to an all-night restaurant from which they telephoned police.

BLOCK BOTH DOORS
Special Officers Bernard Slattery and John Casey heard the upstairs noises as they reached the front entrance, and the door was quietly unlocked. Meanwhile, Special Officers Francis Kelly and Leo Carleton followed a pre-arranged plan and let themselves in the rear restaurant door.

The detective teams reached the office simultaneously and said that as they looked inside they saw two men working with flashlights propped against walls and window curtains drawn tight, applying a heavy crowbar to the door of the strongbox.

All four officers turned on their flashlights and, they said, the two figures crouching over the safe straightened up and hurled a heavy pinch bar and a steel drill at them.

FITCHED BATTLE STARTS
In a moment the battle was on and the detectives dropped flashlights and pocketed their guns to slug it out with the pair at close range. Officer Carleton, injured when the pinch bar struck his ribs, crawled over to the side wall and turned on the office light.

The prisoners were taken to Warren ave. station, where a police physician treated both for numerous cuts and bruises. Officer Slattery was treated for injuries to his collarbone and ribs, while the other three were suffering from numerous abrasions and contusions about the head and face.

Lawyers, Informers Decline To Push Suit Against Muriel

By CHARLES FINSTON

NEW YORK, Dec. 15—Fowler McCormick's deposition hunt in the New England-Mannhattan area for evidence of "maternal unfitness" against his younger sister, Mrs. Muriel McCormick Hubbard, in the multimillion-dollar family child custody quarrel, suffered a dual setback today as follows:

1—Some of the informers hired by the Chicago industrialist to spy on Muriel while she was on WAC recruiting duty in New York have refused to testify.

2—Fowler's New England legal experts, who have taken a trimming during the first week of deposition taking, indicated they may wash their hands of the case.

INFORMERS WALK OUT

One of the informers hired by McCormick, chairman of the International Harvester Co., to spy on Muriel during her WAC tour of duty here in 1944 was Daniel Vaccarelli, who was now working for a private detective agency.

Vaccarelli, who is now somewhere in the South and has refused to answer Fowler's call for testimony, allegedly trailed Muriel to a number of "name" bars and hotel cocktail lounges.

Muriel, on the witness stand, denied any un ladylike elbow-bending. Fowler, however, insists the 45-year-old heiress to a huge share of the Rockefeller and McCormick fortunes pub-crawled so much that he is justified in calling her an "excessive alcoholic."

The only other hired informer left to talk about Muriel's throat-quenching is George Stockner, who still works for the detective agency that Vaccarelli deserted.

MAIDS DOUBTFUL

There is also some question whether two former hotel maids, Edith Little and Beth Leroy, will appear to tell what they may know about Muriel. The maids, it was learned, have thus far been

Mourn Gun Death Of Boy Player

His chums who learned of the tragedy only a few minutes before they went on stage and presented their annual Christmas play, today mourned the death of Christian F. Dennesen, Jr., 15, of Gardiner st., Salem.

The boy was accidentally shot by a companion as he returned from target practice to don his costume for the role of a shepherd in the Nativity play presented at St. Mary's school hall.

The other boy told police the pair were walking from a vacant field off Moffatt rd. in the outskirts of Salem when he pulled the trigger of a .22-caliber pistol he thought to be empty.

Also listed by Fowler as Carl E. Nyman, a school official in Tarrytown, N. Y., and his wife. Nyman is a brother of Gunnar Nyman, Muriel's former handyman and farmer at her 140-acre palatial Lone Tree Farm estate in Middletown, Ct., who was called as one of Fowler's witnesses and turned out to be a backer of the heiress' cause.

About all the Tarrytown Nyman can testify to is the fact Gunnar took the two "ingots of gold" orphans involved in the custody fight.

House GOP in Final Drive For Own Anti-Inflation Bill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—House GOP leaders ordered an 11th-hour strategy huddle today on their plan to pound the Republican anti-inflation bill to passage without letting the opposition lay a hand on it.

GOOD DEED FATAL

SEATTLE, Dec. 15 (AP)—A good deed by Boy Scout William Roan, 16, of West Seattle, cost him his life.

The youth was crushed under the wheels of a skidding State Highway Dept. scraper truck while helping put chains on a stalled car near the summit of Snoqualmie Pass hwy.

Young Roan was en route to the pass on a Boy Scout ski outing when he stopped to help the stranded motorist during a snowstorm.

Rites for Contractor John Bowen Planned

Funeral services were being arranged today for John Bowen, prominent building contractor of Quincy Shore dr. Quincy, who died last night at St. Elizabeth's Hospital after a brief illness.

Among the major projects he directed in recent years were the expansion of Fort Devens, the two South Boston housing projects and the recently-completed wing of St. Margaret's Hospital.

SITTER SOUGHT — Cleveland police are seeking Alice Ritchie, 14-year-old high school student, who vanished from a home in Cleveland where she was engaged as a baby sitter. It was reported she later was seen at a dance with two boys.

Democrats seethed. Some said the majority party couldn't get away with it.

The idea was to plunk the four-point program before the House with word to take it or nothing.

Based on voluntary efforts to hold down living costs, the bill then would be pushed to a vote under a procedure so rigid it would forbid any changes, restrict debate to 20 minutes for and 20 against, and require a two-thirds majority for passage.

STRONG GOP HINT

A strong hint the "take it or leave it" label would stick came from Rep. Halleck (R.) of Indiana, who issued a statement saying if this bill fails Democrats "will have to take responsibility" for killing all economic legislation at the special session scheduled to end Friday.

House Democratic Leader Rayburn, of Texas, cried "outrageous" and "strongarm" tactics.

But Speaker Martin predicted the measure would pass with votes to spare.

Then, in the deepening economic schism between the White House and the Republican majority in Congress, Sen. O'Mahoney (D.) of Wyoming declared the GOP has offered the country a "big business" and pro-monopoly rather than an anti-inflation bill.

MAJOR PROVISIONS

Here's what the Republican measure, up for a House showdown, would do:

Permit and encourage business, industry and agriculture to agree on (A) sharing transportation facilities, (B) marketing livestock and poultry in a manner to use grain most efficiently, (C) dividing up scarce commodities and (D) regulating speculation on the commodity exchanges.

And such voluntary agreements, when approved by the President, would be immune from anti-trust law prosecutions. However, price-fixing would be specifically barred, and no agreement could extend beyond March 1, 1949.

Continue export controls for one year from Feb. 29, 1948, and authorize the President to fix maximum markups in export prices over domestic prices.

Continue for the same period existing presidential power to allocate box cars and other rail transportation facilities.

Increase from 25 per cent to 40 per cent the gold reserves behind currency issued by Federal Reserve banks; increase from 25 per cent to 35 per cent the gold reserves Federal Reserve banks must carry to support deposits of commercial banks.

Fall River Graft Quiz on Thursday

NEW BEDFORD, Dec. 15—The Bristol County grand jury which has been probing municipal corruption in Fall River will hold special sitting there Thursday to continue its investigation, it was disclosed in Superior Court here today.

The special session was obtained by Asst. Atty. Gen. George Fingold and Dist. Atty. Edward Lajoie after a conference with Judge Joseph L. Hurley.

In the normal course of events the next grand jury would be convened in February at Taunton, the jurors new and unacquainted with details of the current body's inquiry.

Navy's 600 MPH Jet Fighter Plane Makes Good in Test

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN

Dutch Ship Looted By China Pirates

HONG KONG, Dec. 15 (AP)—Pirates boarded the 4532-ton Dutch passenger ship Van Heutz, robbed the passengers of cash and jewelry valued at hundreds of thousands of Hong Kong dollars and escaped in commandeered junks today after temporarily holding the captain hostage.

A. H. Elston, director of criminal investigation, announced that the vessel was looted and controlled by the pirates for about 15 hours after it was about four hours out of Hong Kong on a trip to Swatow, Chinese port about 180 miles northeast of here.

The vessel returned today to Hong Kong. Passengers estimated the pirates numbered about 25.

Apparently some of the raiders boarded the ship here disguised as passengers and had a rendezvous with confederates at Bias Bay. At Chi Leng Point, the pirates left the vessel.

Third officer Nedkerkorn estimated the theft totalled about 1,000,000 straits dollars ($500,000).

He said the pirates gathered clothes as they moved about the ship and that some carried as many as five hats on their heads in pyramid style. The pirate leader spent a comfortable night in the captain's quarters while his gang went about its wholesale robbery.

Truman Realizes Aid Message

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)

—President Truman today will have a message for Congress this week on long-range European recovery aid.

This assures the legislators will have the message for study during their vacation between the end of the current special session and the opening of the regular session Jan. 6. Plans are to adjourn the special session Friday.

BLINDING SPEED

In taking off, Meyer moved along at the modest speed of 290 miles an hour. He then stepped it up, shot past the spectators at blinding speed no higher than 30 feet above the ground and—like a flash—bolted obliquely upward into the sky at a speed of around 300 miles an hour.

Less than a minute after he had taken off he was almost lost from view in the clouds. While making the steep climb, Meyer executed a few barrel rolls.

Soon he was back, making a neat landing in a short space at a speed cut down to 80 or 85 miles an hour.

It was all done with smooth efficiency and casual matter-of-factness that demonstrated the "Panther's" tremendous potentialities as a fighter plane in naval warfare.

The "Panther" is one of a series of Navy developments which will enable naval air power to take control of the air when and where needed.

CONTROL OF SEAS

Asst. Navy Sec. for Air John Nicholas Brown has pointed out that it is the function of the Navy to control the air over the seas of the world and adjacent land areas.

The XF9F-2 is designed to operate within a 300-mile combat area.

This first experimental model of the XF9F-2 is powered by a Rolls-Royce/Nene turbo-jet engine, developed by the British

88--AND A DAD FOR 3D TIME IN 3 YEARS

DES MOINES, Dec. 15 (AP)—Luis Carrizales, 88, became a father yesterday for the third time since 1945.

Carrizales and his 23-year-old wife Mary were the parents of a daughter Sandra in 1945 and a son Frederick in 1946. The children have the black hair and olive skin of their father who is half Cherokee and half Spanish.

The latest child weighs seven pounds, 15 ounces.

Carrizales, a farm equipment firm employe, said he kept it by changing himself 40 times a day. He has seven other children by two previous marriages.

1 Killed, 2 Injured In Bangor Blaze

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 15 (AP)—An unidentified man died today in a fire that swept the Bangor Inn, a rooming house.

Two others were hospitalized at the Eastern Maine General Hospital which listed them as Franklin D. Cols, Inn proprietor, smoke inhalation, and John J. Frank, Augusta, burns about the arms and chest.

Fifteen occupants of the Inn, some of them women, were forced to flee the burning building, some leaping from windows. The dead man was found in a kneeling position beside a bed. He was burned beyond recognition.

Dog Bite Brings His Arrest, But Wife Drops Old Charge

John J. Blickenstaff, 22, merchant mariner, whose arrest yesterday on a year-old assault and battery warrant sworn out by his wife was brought about when a police dog bit him, walked out of East Boston court with her today in happy reconciliation.

Mrs. Blickenstaff told Judge Charles Brown they had composed their differences although she had never gotten around to asking the case be dropped.

The jurist said he was running the court.

The clerk asked Blickenstaff how he pleaded. Blickenstaff said, "I hit her, to be honest."

The police, who hadn't been able to catch up with him because of his voyages, amplified Mrs. Blickenstaff's story of reconciliation and said the incident had grown out of nothing more than a "family row."

The warrant had been issued Sept. 4, 1936. Blickenstaff was arrested after he was bitten by a police dog in Maverick st., near his home, yesterday, and a physician who treated him reported the

New 18 Million Hub Sugar Plant Planned for '48

Plans for construction of an $18,000,000 sugar refinery in Atlantic ave. on the site of the present India and Central wharfs were announced today

Girl Defies School, Parents, Weds at 14

OSAGE, Ia., Dec. 15 (AP)—Maxine Linda Kittleson, 14, St. Ansgar, and Donald Grinstead, 20, Orchard, Ia., were married here Saturday despite opposition of Maxine's parents and the St. Ansgar School Board.

When the mature-looking bride who was to have entered the eighth grade last fall, refused to return to school, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kittleson, finally consented to her marriage. The couple plans to live with her parents in St. Ansgar, where Donald will be employed.

The mayor said the new plant would replace the company's present refinery on Ft. Point Channel.

Negotiations had been carried on by him for the past year, the mayor said, with a view to keeping the plant within the city limits. Several other sites had been under consideration but the Atlantic ave. location finally was selected.

"This will be the first large enterprise to be located in Atlantic ave. for many years," Mayor Curley said. "It should prove of great benefit to the city and serve as an example of the progress Boston can expect in the future."

"This $18,000,000 plant will bring to about $150,000,000 the amount of new construction which we expect to have starting in Boston during the coming year."

Norristown Paper Typo Strike Ends

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Dec. 15 (AP)—Typesetters at the Norristown Times-Herald today ended a one-week strike, returning to work on what a management spokesman said were company terms.

W. H. Shelton, general manager of the newspaper, said that the 43 typesetters, members of Local 620, AFL-International Typographers Union, accepted the paper's last wage offer and returned on an open-shop basis. The union previously had won a closed shop.

Shelton said the open-closed shop was not a central issue in the dispute.

The general manager said that since the strike began last Monday the newspaper had hired "12 to 15" new typesetters.

When asked how many would be retained, Shelton said, "If there's work enough for all of them, we'll keep them all. If not, we'll just have to keep the best men and let the others go."

Union spokesmen would not comment on the settlement.

The strike was called Dec. 8 when the typesetters demanded a wage boost from $60 weekly to $72.50. The newspaper offered $67.50. Shelton said the union agreed to accept the $67.50 figure.

Tommy Cronin, 9, son of Red Sox general manager, Joe Cronin, who suffered head injuries when struck by an auto while returning from church, was showing marked improvement today at Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

His father visited him for a time at the hospital today and said he was doing very well but probably would remain under treatment there for a few days.

At the Cronin home his mother, Mrs. Mildred Cronin, was pleased at the report but added she was concerned now about her daughter, Maureen. Tommy's younger sister was badly shaken up in a fall in their home the other day and has shown a loss of appetite.

Tommy was injured Sunday while returning with his father from mass at Sacred Heart Church, Newton Center. Running ahead, the boy was struck when he darted into the street from between two parked cars at Crescent and Norwood aves., about a block from his home.

Brockton Boy Is Hero in Fire

BROCKTON, Dec. 15.—Alertness of a junior high school student was credited today with preventing possible loss of life when a general alarm fire roared through a six-tenement duplex house in Ames st. with loss estimated at $20,000.

Edward Couble, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Couble, was in his first floor home when he noticed smoke. He gave the alarm to all occupants of the building and led Mrs. Albina Davis and her year-old baby to the street.

Meanwhile, the woman's husband, Joseph Davis, was carrying out Mrs. Victoria Couble, 80, an invalid who lives on the third floor. She is the grandmother of young Couble. A total of 14 occupants fled into sub-freezing weather.

Mother, 4 Children Die in Cottage Fire

STOCKTON, Cal., Dec. 15 (AP)—A mother, her three children and her young sister were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their four-room cottage on the outskirts of Stockton.

The dead were Mrs. Earline Scott, 27; her daughters, Beverly Ann, 7; Glenda Marlene, 5, and Brenda Fay, 3; and her sister, Lamoine Mays, 14. Two neighbors attempted to crash the front door of the house but were driven back by the heat.

American Lawyer's Ph Wins Krupp Rehearing

NUERNBERG, Germany, Dec. 15 (AP)—Alfred Krupp challenged today the American military tribunal's refusal to allow him an American lawyer and to have a rehearing on the issue.

Krupp and 11 other leadership officials of the Krupp arms and steel works are on trial on war crimes charges. He stated through his attorney, "in the interests of a fair trial," it was fundamental that he have immediate American attorney, familiar with processes in U. S. courts.

The court scheduled its rehearing for Wednesday.

PASTOR CONGRATULATED AT DOUBLE CELEBRATION—Celebrating his 75th birthday and 50th anniversary as a priest, Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor (center), pastor of St. James Church, Arlington Heights, is congratulated by Most Rev. John J. Wright, D.D., Aux. Bishop of Boston (left), while Rev. James Cassidy, of Rockland, waits to pay his respects.

Tide of Petitions Sweeps In Urging Congress Pass UMT

By DAN MARKEL

Boston Evening American Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—A tidal wave of petitions demanding universal military training has swept down on Congress, and the deluge is continuing.

Thousands of petitions bearing from one to several hundred signatures were clipped from the Hearst newspapers.

They were supplemented by identical petitions circulated by the American Legion and other patriotic organizations.

John Thomas Taylor, national legislative director of the Legion, said today:

"Congressmen already committed to vote for universal military training are gratified by the tremendous petition response."

"Hesitant and reluctant congressmen are now becoming aware of the mounting demand for immediate passage of this legislation when Congress reconvenes in regular session Jan. 5."

"The petition crusade will be

FIRE HERO FREED

TOKYO, Dec. 15 (AP)—Heroic work in a prison fire has won a parole for Japan's famed preaching robber after 17 years behind bars.

Matsubuchi Teumaki, 47, serving a life term, led fellow trustees in fighting the blaze, and helped guards prevent escapes.

In his robber days he would break into homes, preach to the family on the improper locking of doors, and leave with the advice:

"Please don't do the same thing again."

Shot From Gallery Fells Dancing Star

LONDON, Dec. 15 (AP)—The eight "Valentine Lovlies" in the chorus screamed suddenly in the finale of their show at Clapham's Grand Theater.

Blood was spurting over the silver-spangled brassier of the dancing star, blonde Vera Valentine, 21, as she did her final "split."

A lead slug was removed from her shoulder, and he wound was said not to be serious.

Scotland Yard, after investigation, said she had been shot by someone in the upper gallery who had scattered several similar slugs over the stage with a powerful airgun.

New England, sharing the nation's generally high business activity in 1947, may look forward to jobs, good incomes, working and living conditions, a Federal Reserve Bank of Boston year-end review said today.

able labor force can be expected to be offset by the inflow of persons from other areas," the report said.

"Population in New England rose 10.5 per cent compared with 8.9 per cent for the nation between 1946 and mid-1947, which indicates an expectation of jobs, good incomes, and good working and living conditions in the region."

The report added that "since New England is heavily dependent upon imports of raw materials, a sound readjustment of raw material prices will contribute much to encourage high level of business activity in 1948."

During the spring and early summer, the bank said, New England "appeared to have undergone a slight business recession which was not shared to the same extent by the nation. The nondurable goods slump, confined largely to the woolen, apparel, and the shoe industries, could be attributed largely to a shift in consumer purchases toward a more normal pattern.

"A rise in business activity since early summer has been highlighted by further inflationary pressure on the price structure. Manufacturing employment during October approached record peacetime levels of a year ago. Construction programs, with no clear evidence of an impending decline in costs, showed better than seasonal performance, and approached a postwar high. In some areas of the region com-struction is at an all-time peak. Some seasonal letdown in construction can be expected with the advent of severe winter earnings of New England factory workers were generally upward during the year.

Ex-Cong. Jenks Of N. H. Dead

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 15 (AP)—Arthur B. Jenks, twice a member of Congress and a former shoe manufacturer, died at his home after a month's illness.

He was first elected to Congress in 1936 as a Republican, defeating Alphonse Roy (D.) of Manchester by 550 votes. A recount requested by Roy resulted in a tie, and the New Hampshire Ballot Commission ruled Roy had won by 17 votes.

The fight was carried onto the floor of Congress, and Roy was finally seated after Jenks had served all but the final six days of the 75th Congressional session. Two years later Jenks defeated Roy by a plurality of more than 9000 votes.

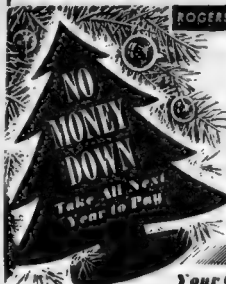

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Marie Jenks, and two sons, Chester W. of Manchester, and Harvey of Boston.

Entry of 100,000 Europeans for Jobs in U. S. Proposed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—A proposal to permit entry into the United States of 100,000 carefully screened, qualified workers from Germany, Austria and Italy is contained in a bill drafted for introduction today by Rep. Francis Case (R.) of South Dakota.

The measure would include displaced persons but would not be limited to them, Case explained. He said the 100,000 allowed to enter should be broken down into these specific job categories: 36,000 general farm laborers, but not more than two to be hired on any farm, nor more than 12 to a county. 25,000 domestic servants, but not more than two to any household. 12,000 vegetable and sugar beet growers, with no more than two to a farm. 12,000 dairy workers, with a limit of two to a farm or processing plant. 10,000 hospital attendants, but not more than one per 50 beds in any hospital. 5000 mechanics, bricklayers, carpenters and masons, with no more than two per contractor, for each 100 employees.

Case said he proposes to limit the number of immigrants hired by particular establishments

King Michael Stalls Return To Romania

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND
Dean of American Foreign Correspondents

Written expressly for the Hearst Newspapers

ROME, Dec. 15—King Michael is debating in his mind whether or not to return to his throne in Romania.

Scheduled to start back to Bucharest two weeks ago, Michael and his mother, Princess Helen of Greece, continue their lingering in Switzerland.

The outcome of the London conference between the foreign ministers of America, Britain, Soviet Russia and France may help the young king to make up his mind, according to well informed circles in contact with Michael.

ATTEND BETH'S BRIDAL

Michael's mother, his closest and most trusted advisor, left Romania with him to attend the wedding in London of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh last Nov. 20.

Meantime, former King Carol, Michael's father, reportedly arrived in Portugal aboard a Portuguese ship and with Magda Lupescu, to whom he is now married, is living at Estoril, 15 miles from Lisbon.

Carol is said to have signed a declaration that he will not meddle in Romanian politics as long as his son, Michael, remains on the throne.

ASKS WEDDING PERMIT

According to Romanian Iron Guard sources, Michael, 26, has applied to the Communist Romanian government, as required by the constitution, for its sanction to marry 24-year-old Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma. Engagement of the couple was recently reported in Danish dispatches.

The Danish-French princess, Rome reports, was worked in a fashionable New York hat shop operated by her royal mother during the latter part of World War II.

Kennedy Calls Red Ban Vital To U. S. Labor

Labor unions can best regain confidence of the general public by continuing their current drives against Communists in controlling positions in some unions.

This was the advice today of Cong. John F. Kennedy, who told the Massachusetts CIO convention that the Taft-Hartley law, "a severe blow to those who believe in the importance of harmonious industrial relations," was passed largely because the public had lost confidence in labor groups through a belief Communists were controlling some unions.

While it is still too early to determine the effects of the Taft-Hartley law on "strongly entrenched unions," the Congressman from Massachusetts declared, he believes that some sections will be declared unconstitutional as a result of "multiple litigations now in the courts."

ENDORSE PAY FIGHT

Several resolutions were adopted during the closing session, including one which endorsed the national CIO executive board's declaration for a fight for "a substantial third round of wage increases."

"The outstanding feature of the Wagner Act," Kennedy told the delegates, "was that it clearly indicated that the government stood solidly behind the collective bargaining process. On the other hand the Taft-Hartley Act tends to weaken the collective bargaining process."

"Provisions like the amended Section 7, which deals with the right of employees to join labor organizations and to bargain collectively can, if strictly construed, expose organizers to risks which they have not met before."

UNIONS LOST FAVOR

"I must warn you of the enormity of the fight that you face. A great many of our states have enacted anti-labor legislation. The U. S. Congress has passed the Taft-Hartley Act by a 3-to-1 margin."

"These figures demonstrate clearly that the Taft-Hartley Bill was no political accident. They show distinctly that somewhere along the road, labor has lost the public support it enjoyed in the 30's—and without public support the American labor movement cannot survive."

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Copyright, 1947, by King West, Synd., Inc.

WHENEVER President Truman speaks off the cuff, his popularity rises. He says practically what is in the minds of most Americans.

It is like that remark of his about the "police state." He did not want powers that would turn this country into a "police state," country into a "police state."

Most Americans feel that way. No police state in Europe is particularly attractive to an American. None of those countries are worthy of imitation, according to the ideas of Harry Truman.

But then it all changes. Along come his experts, his smart young men, his power-thirsty New Dealers, his careerists on the make, and sooner or later, Harry Truman contradicts himself. He eats his own words.

Certainly it is not the Harry Truman who spontaneously objected to a police state, that authorized Averell Harriman to introduce legislation which must turn this country into a police state. The paradox is that Truman, who on his own is so sound, seems to be so unsure and humble that he lets these authority-hungry empire builders mislead him.

And in the end they will destroy Harry Truman, for whereas he gives every indication of being a man of honest instincts, motivated by a burning admiration of his country and its way of life, his advisers can think of nothing but spending money, piling up taxes, fixing subsidies and grabbing power.

The ghost of Henry Wallace guides them. The fear of Henry Wallace motivates them. They have no program of their own.

HARRY TRUMAN has taken an unbelievably heavy burden in entrusting the public presentation of his policy to those who nowadays breathe a fierce capitalism, while introducing a somewhat British socialism—a go-slow socialism which has done nothing for Great Britain and only increases confusion here.

The essential of our recovery is accelerated production. As Bernard Baruch said in 1946:

"Increase production. This is the law and the prophets—without it, the rest of my suggestions are meaningless. So I say again: 'Increase production.'"

"Stop increasing money supply. Stop decreasing taxes until the budget is balanced. Stop balking the public by saying wage increases can be granted without increase in price levels. Do not fear to increase prices or wages where necessary to get and stimulate production . . ."

"Take care of those between the millstones—clerks, government employees, pensioners, et al. Make surpluses of goods in military hands available to compensate for shortages. Stimulate founding and financing small business."

Take stock before blindly leading—make inventories of our goods, our cash, our credit before we increase the pressure on these. Cut government costs, including federal, state, county and city. In time of deflation we should spend; in time of inflation we should save . . .

"Avoid an economic dictatorship. We are still a free society based on the enterprise system."

THAT WAS a program for action but it was rejected as every Baruch program dealing with inflation, with preventatives of inflation, with a sensible attitude toward controls has been rejected.

The same people who made all the mistakes during the war years that have cost this country so much wealth, but even worse, so much time, are back in harness seeking to ride herd over us, producing nothing but more controls, more limitations on both production and consumption.

Earl Baldwin's Death Grieves British Nation

LONDON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Earl Baldwin, 80, three prime minister of Britain, died in his sleep Saturday at his home in Stourport, Worcestershire—11 years after he had forced Edward VIII to renounce his throne as the price for choosing to marry an American divorcee.

His cremation is set for Wednesday or Thursday at Birmingham.

It was Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin and the late Cosmo Gordon Lang, Archbishop of Canterbury, who told Edward he must renounce either the throne or twice-divorced Wallis Warfield Simpson. Edward chose abdication.

It was Baldwin, who stood before the House of Commons with tears in his eyes and delivered the message of abdication from Edward, a personal friend.

"No more grave message has ever been received by Parliament and no more difficult, and I might say, more repugnant task has ever been imposed on a prime minister," he said.

Baldwin recounted how he had told Edward he did not believe the country would approve the marriage.

Shortly afterward Baldwin became Earl Baldwin of Bewdley and retired to his birthplace in Stourport to "raise pigs."

Jap Killer of Bataan Hero Gets 25 Years

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 15 (AP)—Iku Takasaki, former commander of prisoner of war camps at Cabanatuan and Davao in the Philippines, was convicted today of responsibility for the deaths of two American soldiers and abuses of others, including Maj. Arthur Wermuth—famed "one-man army of Bataan."

The Japanese lieutenant colonel was sentenced by a U. S. 8th Army trial commission to 25 years at hard labor for the deaths of Lt. Robert Huffcutt, Buffalo, N. Y., and Maj. Charles F. Harrison of Leesburg, Va.

Unions Move On Wide Front For Pay Hikes

By Associated Press

Rans of labor appeared to be astir on a broadening front again today for a race with the higher cost of living.

While 50,000 Western Union employees, members of three AFL unions outside metropolitan New York city, proceeded with a vote on a proposed Christmas season strike, 310,000 CIO United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers served notice that "a wage increase is needed at once."

The general executive board of the Electrical Workers said a conference has been called for Jan. 5 at which delegates will draft new contract demands.

The A. F. L. Telegraph employees' union, said its workers were voting about 10 to 1 in favor of a strike to enforce demands for a boost of 15 cents an hour.

Result of the voting was expected to be announced Monday. Representatives of 2500 CIO Communications workers voted to call a strike against three major cable companies in New York if 1948 contract terms satisfactory to the union are not agreed upon by Dec. 31. The companies are MacKay Radio and Telegraph Co., The Commercial Cable Co., and the cables division of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

The four-week-old strike of 1500 members of the International Typographical Union against Chicago's six major daily newspapers showed no signs of settlement.

Since the printers walked out on Nov. 24, the papers have published by a photo-engraving process. The printers' wage demands are for $100 a week for day work and $108 for the night and early morning hours. The old contract was for $85.50 for 36 1/2 hours of day work; $91 for 36 1/2 hours of night work, and $91 for 30 hours of early morning work.

Leftist Candidates Lead enueia Poll

CARACAS, Venezuela, Dec. 15 (AP)—Partial returns from Sunday's national elections indicated today the government party would win the presidency and gain a comfortable majority in Congress.

Of the first 136,185 votes, an unofficial count gave 100,680 to Ro-mulo Gallegos, 63-year-old ex-school teacher and novelist who is candidate of the left-of-center Accion Democratica party.

Rafael Caldera, 31, leader of the rightist (Copey) party received 32,562 votes and Gustavo Machado, the Communist candidate, trailed with 2943.

Solon Urges U. S. Slash Red Nation Visas

By DAVID SENTNER
 Boston American Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—A bill designed to halt the flood of Soviet agents and propagandists pouring into the United States under visitor's visas will be given a hearing by the House Judiciary committee early in January, it was learned.

The measure, introduced by Rep. Thomas A. Jenkins (R.) of Ohio, calls for discontinuance of the issuance of immigration and visitor's visas in Soviet Russia and countries behind the "iron curtain."

PROVIDES VISA EQUITY

Another provision limits issuance of non-immigrant visas to officials of the Soviet Union and "iron curtain" nations, to the number granted American officials.

Countries named in the bill include the USSR, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Albania, The Ukraine and Byco-Russia.

Currently, even if an American visa is granted in the above-named "iron curtain" countries, nobody is permitted to leave without the approval of Moscow, it was pointed out.

RED AGENTS ENTER

As a result, the only type of immigrant from the Soviet Union or its satellites who is getting into the United States, is the alien Communist agent or the Soviet propagandist, according to Jenkins.

Many of these propagandists have arrived under the guise of newspapermen.

Specific activities of two so-called newspapermen from Poland who have been spreading pro-Soviet propaganda among Polish-American groups on the West Coast—Pittsburgh, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee and to other parts of the Midwest, have been called to the attention of Jenkins.

4 States Back Yule Drive for Needy Scots

Businessmen, labor leaders and representatives of the governors of Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont joined today in furthering a drive for food, clothing and fuel for the needy people of Scotland under the leadership of President Michael T. Kelleher of the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

The drive will be officially known as "Operation Santa Claus" and the goal is $2,500,000 in money and goods. Appeals were directed particularly to manufacturers of food and clothing who were asked to make donations in case lots, while the public generally were asked to contribute cash.

All checks or money orders should be addressed to "SS Yankee Friendship, c/o Allan Forbes, State Street Trust Co., State st., Boston."

DONATIONS FLOW IN

Kelleher announced receipt of a number of donations, including $5000 worth of sugar, half a freight car load of corn and 200 cases of beans. He stressed the fact that new clothing is wanted for men, women and children.

Thomas Pappas, representing the C. Pappas Co., pledged $5000 worth of food, and the Sales Managers' Club guaranteed $1000 worth of food. The State of Maine has promised a generous donation of potatoes, it was said.

Pointing out that the Scots are a proud people, but proud people can be cold and hungry, Pres. Kelleher warned that the time is short for the collection of goods to be shipped abroad.

FOR "LITTLE CHRISTMAS"

He said the SS Yankee Friendship ship will be loaded at Castle Island, sailing Dec. 29 and due to arrive in Glasgow 12 days later on "Little Christmas."

The consignee in Glasgow will be Tom Johnston, well known shipping man, who has cabled his acceptance of the obligation and announced the goods will be turned over to all the churches in Scotland for distribution.

Earlier plans had been started for the moving of trains from three points through New England, all converging on Boston with stores of food, clothing and fuel to be transported to dockside and loaded without cost.

McCormack May Be Truman Running Mate

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—Harry Truman within a reasonably short time must turn his attention to the only thing still in doubt about the work to be done by the Philadelphia convention next July, the selection of his running-mate.

Democratic leaders at the capitol believe the President has not begun to give very serious attention to this detail, which in 1948 will be, for him, far more important than the selection of a vice-presidential nominee usually is at national conventions. Several factors, including the geographical, will largely determine the choice.

A prominent Republican very familiar with conditions in Missouri and Oklahoma brought to Washington for the Gridiron Club weekend word that the President's stock has risen sharply in those two states in recent months.

A year ago Mr. Truman probably could not have carried either and the Pendergast disclosures in Kansas City may yet prove very embarrassing to him in his own "show me" state.

Nevertheless, there is a general feeling here that the President is stronger in the Middle West than he was.

The state to which he would naturally turn for a side partner, especially in an emergency created by a third-ticket candidacy of Henry Wallace, is New York, where Wallace would cut heavily into left-wing Democratic strength unless a very strong local candidate were on the Truman ticket.

Defense Sec. Forrestal, who had been widely discussed as vice presidential material, has pretty definitely taken himself out of the list of possibilities.

This leaves James A. Farley, former national chairman, who broke with Roosevelt on the third-term issue, the remaining outstanding Democratic figure in the Empire State.

Farley has more friends, and more "know how," than any member of his party, not even excepting the President himself.

Most politicians believe the President will have to go to the East for a running-mate, so that eyes are being cast on the New England scene.

A strong drive is already quietly under way for John L. Sullivan, of Hampshire, the Navy Secretary, but a newcomer in the field may prove to have a better claim.

This curiously enough is Cong. John McCormack, of Massachusetts, sturdy and dependable New Deal House leader under Roosevelt, who put over many of the extreme measures sponsored by the late President.

If the President cannot find vice-presidential material in New York, Sen. McGrath, of Rhode Island, the new national chairman, should not be discounted.

4 States Back Yule Drive for Needy Scots

Businessmen, labor leaders and representatives of the governors of Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont joined today in furthering a drive for food, clothing and fuel for the needy people of Scotland under the leadership of President Michael T. Kelleher of the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

The drive will be officially known as "Operation Santa Claus" and the goal is $2,500,000 in money and goods. Appeals were directed particularly to manufacturers of food and clothing who were asked to make donations in case lots, while the public generally were asked to contribute cash.

All checks or money orders should be addressed to "SS Yankee Friendship, c/o Allan Forbes, State Street Trust Co., State st., Boston."

DONATIONS FLOW IN

Kelleher announced receipt of a number of donations, including $5000 worth of sugar, half a freight car load of corn and 200 cases of beans. He stressed the fact that new clothing is wanted for men, women and children.

Thomas Pappas, representing the C. Pappas Co., pledged $5000 worth of food, and the Sales Managers' Club guaranteed $1000 worth of food. The State of Maine has promised a generous donation of potatoes, it was said.

Pointing out that the Scots are a proud people, but proud people can be cold and hungry, Pres. Kelleher warned that the time is short for the collection of goods to be shipped abroad.

'Jesus, Son of Mary' By Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen

His Birth

You know there is a God in Heaven.

But did you ever think about Him coming to this earth? And what shape He would take when He decided to come here to help us?

Would He come as a cloud in the sky . . . a flash of lightning . . . a peal of thunder?

God really did come to this earth. That is the meaning of Christmas—God with us.

But He did not come as anything strange, or frightening, or huge.

He came as a Baby, to a tiny little village called Bethlehem.

And He was called Jesus.

You would not like to take your soul, which can know and think and love and talk, and put it into the body of a snake or of a cat or dog, would you?

But God did more than that when He became man.

He stepped down from Heaven and became like one of us.

It was not even like the smartest boy in the eighth grade going to the bottom of the class in the first grade.

And He did not come to us as a great man, but as a very simple Baby.

You never knew where or when or how you would be born. But Jesus did. And that is because He is God.

Nobody knew 50 years ago that you would be born. But for hundreds of years many knew that Jesus would be born of a Mother who would be a virgin. They knew also the time and the very town where He would first appear.

He who later on called Himself "the Living Bread descended from Heaven" was born in Bethlehem—which in Hebrew means "house of bread." And He was laid in a manger—a place of food—as if to show us that as we have bread for our bodies, so He would be the Bread of our souls.

In this world, people who are proud and who think they are terribly important cannot get used to the idea of God making Himself so little.

That is why only two kinds of people came to visit Him, when He was born—the Shepherds and the Wise Men.

The Shepherds were very simple people. They were sure that they did not know anything. The Wise Men were very wise. But they knew that they did not know everything.

People who think they know everything never find that Baby.

Angel choirs sang to the Shepherds, saying: "Your Shepherd is born in Bethlehem."

A giant star appeared, bigger than all the stars of heaven, to lead the Wise Men. They followed it until it stopped over a stable.

They went in with the Shepherds and found the Baby Jesus in a manger, with His Mother and Joseph.

There was an ox on one side of Him and a donkey on the other, to help keep Him warm. Wouldn't you think that, when God came to this earth, He could find a better home than a stable?

Well, His Mother tried to find one.

She went to all the hotels in the village of Bethlehem.

But there was always the same answer: "There is no room."

The three Wise Men brought gifts to the Baby.

One brought gold, because He is the King of the world, and kings usually wear golden ornaments.

Another brought incense, because He is God and ought to be surrounded with sweet-smelling odors as He is adored.

Another brought myrrh—a kind of medicine used to soften wounds and to wash the dead.

The Wise Men who brought the myrrh knew that evil men would not like anyone as good as Jesus, and that one day they would kill Him.

Think of how sad your own mother would have been if someone brought her myrrh when you were born.

Well, His Mother was very sad, for a cruel death was in store for her divine little Son.

As she stood at the stable door one sunset, and stretched out her arms wide, she saw fall on the crib of her little Boy—the shadow of a Cross.

His

Boyhood

You have heard many stories of kings.

The king who lived in the land where Jesus was born was very wicked.

When he heard Jesus was a heavenly King, he was afraid he would lose the land he ruled over.

How foolish he was!

He forgot that Jesus, who gave up His heavenly crown, would certainly not want to steal an earthly one.

Jesus did not want the kind of a kingdom that soldiers had to keep together. He wanted a Kingdom of all men, who would love Him and always do what He asked.

This evil king was very jealous of Jesus. He sent out his horsemen to break

The American presents herewith the first two chapters of a great story especially appropriate for the week before Christmas. "Jesus, Son of Mary" is the new book by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen—the story of Jesus inspiring told in the simple eloquence for which Msgr. Sheen is noted. The first chapter is reprinted from the Boston Sunday Advertiser. Subsequent chapters will appear daily. Msgr. Sheen's book is published by Declan X. McMullen Co., Inc. The illustrations, which are selected from the book, are by Raffaele Busoni.

into houses, and to stab to death all the little boys in and around Bethlehem.

He thought that, if he killed all the new baby boys, he would be sure to kill the Baby Jesus.

The little children who died that day are called the Holy Innocents.

They were like ships that sank just after they first put out to sea. They died for the Lord before He died for them.

But the soldiers never found Jesus.

An angel came in the night and told Joseph to take Mary and the Child into far-off Egypt.

There is an old legend which says that, when Jesus came into Egypt, many statues of false gods toppled over and crashed to the ground.

But, what is certain is that a prophet who lived long before Jesus came foretold that Jesus the true God would be a refugee in Egypt—as His own people were fourteen hundred years before.

Every missionary who ever goes into a pagan land finds strength to do it because Jesus did it first.

When the evil king died, the angel came again, and told Joseph: "Now you may go back to your own land."

So Joseph returned to his own village, called Nazareth, and reopened his little shop.

He was a carpenter.

And the Boy Jesus watched him and learned how to use a hammer and saw. He worked as a carpenter because He wanted to show how much God loves work.

He who made the stars and the sun and the moon let Joseph tell Him how to make a chair and a table and a door.

His Mother was often worried when she saw Him with nails in His hands, and she was always afraid that one lying on the floor might pierce His feet.

When He was twelve, like many other boys, He got lost. But unlike other boys, He got lost on purpose.

He had gone with Mary and Joseph and lots of others to the largest city in His country to pray.

When the services were over, His Mother and Joseph started back, His Mother traveling with the women, and Joseph with the men. Each thought that Jesus was safely with the other group.

When they discovered that He was missing, they were very frightened.

They searched for three days before they found Him. And where do you think He had been?

Because He was God and knew all that would happen to Him, I think that one night He went to visit an olive garden where, many years later, He would go to pray for the world.

On another night, perhaps, He walked outside of the city to a hill which was called Calvary.

Calvary—remember that name, you will hear it again! Anyhow, they found Him on the third day. He was teaching the wisest men of the city—although He was only a Boy.

He could do that because He was God.

Then He went back with His parents to Nazareth, and obeyed them until He was thirty years old.

He did this to show how much He wants us to obey His commandment: Honor thy father and thy mother!

And also to remind us that it takes a good family to produce good children.

God does not want parents to quarrel and leave each other and their children. His own family was happy because it takes more than two to make love.

The Third in the family at Nazareth was Jesus.

Third chapter, "His Mother," will appear in tomorrow's Boston Evening American.

Probe Priest's Report Atheism Being Taught

School authorities in Newton today were investigating a warning by Rev. Thomas Murphy, pastor of Corpus Christi Church in Auburndale, that a teacher in a Newton junior high school was preaching atheism to the pupils.

Fr. Murphy told his congregation that as taxpayers it was their duty to take whatever action might be necessary. He stated at the same time that school officials might not be aware such a condition exists.

PROBE ASSURED

Asst. Supt. of Schools Harold B. Gores, when informed of the priest's charge, said he had heard such reports "unofficially," and said the matter would be investigated.

Chairman David W. Tibbot of the Newton School Committee said he had received no official complaint from any parents, but added teaching of atheism in the school system would not be tolerated.

Fr. Murphy told his parishioners his attention was called to the matter two years ago by children in the parish, but since that time reports had increased both from children and parents.

NAME WITHHELD

"I am not furnishing leadership in any movement against this teacher," Fr. Murphy said. "I merely did my duty as pastor to inform parents in my parish who may have children in this particular school what their children were being taught."

"Any action to be taken must be taken by the parents themselves."

Fr. Murphy said he had received several complaints from parents about the teacher who, he said, is a man. He refused to give his name for publication, but said he would supply the name to any parents who ask him.

He said the teacher had been in the school system for several years.

NO MORE DOLES FOR SOCIALISM

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made in Washington that Great Britain has "drawn" for immediate expenditure an additional $100,000,000 of the British loan.

With this disbursement, the original credit of $3,750,000,000 has been reduced to a mere $300,000,000.

Supposedly, the money was provided to put Great Britain on a self-supporting industrial basis and to remove certain trade barriers, including blocked currencies, which were said to prevent a revival of international commerce.

Furthermore, it was declared that the loan would be amply sufficient for British requirements and there would be no need for more American advances. No part of the deceptive prospectus has been fulfilled.

The British loan has been virtually exhausted as a SOCIALIST RELIEF FUND.

The Labor government has not carried out its agreement for the stabilization of currencies, including payments of British mercantile debts to other countries in dollars instead of pound sterling.

And—it is now reported—under the "European recovery program" of the Marshall Plan, Great Britain will seek an additional TEN BILLION DOLLARS during the next four years.

In the Paris report of the sixteen participating nations on which the ERP was formulated, total requisitions upon the Americas were set at $9,200,000,000 FOR THE FIRST YEAR ONLY—and the British portion was presented as $2,630,000,000, or more than 28 per cent of the entire sum.

Here the American people and the American Congress have mathematical proof that huge doles to Socialistic governments in Europe will NOT revitalize Europe and will surely IMPOVERISH the United States.

The need is not to GIVE OUR PRODUCTION AWAY in the form of unproductive loans or gifts, but to REBUILD PRODUCTION IN EUROPE. The British loan demonstrates that this cannot be accomplished by subsidizing European Socialism.

THANKFUL

Santa Ana, Cal.
Nov. 24, 1947.

MR. WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST,
San Simeon, Cal.

Dear Mr. Hearst:
PLEASE ACCEPT my sincere thanks for the publicity in your papers about the terrible health conditions and our awful neglect of the Navajo Indians of Arizona and New Mexico.

It behoves our statesmen in Washington and everywhere to at once get busy to cure this terrible neglect of our first Americans.

Why ship grain and other foods to Europe and elsewhere when vital necessities are so badly needed at home? Why succor the rest of the world, when our poor, defeated, voiceless wards of the mighty American Government starve, freeze, and die of preventable diseases?

Those poor wind-swept desert graves of World War II Indian warriors cry for votes for their tribesmen and for compassion for the living remnants of the once powerful and self-supporting Navajo.

The white man took his choicest lands and his living in a great measure; the vast herds of buffalo are no more. His sheep herds have been cut down at the direction of Washington.

WHY?

Is it in order to benefit Australian and other foreign interests? Such has been said in the past. Mr. Hearst, it is a wonderful thing your papers are doing in your fearless expose of conditions on our Indian reservations—with special accent on Navajo lands—conditions of illiteracy, starvation, disease, and general hellishness that thinking Americans who read of these things bow our heads in shame.

It is high time for us to recognize that the Indian—defeated by us through superior power—is highly deserving of the magnanimity of his fellow Americans.

The Indian has been a mighty factor in contributing to the civilization of the white man. He has given us of his medicines and of his foods. We owe the Indian for quinine, the potato, corn, tobacco, tapioca, the cigar and even the health enemy just to name a few things named by Robert Ripley.

The Indian's art is so distinctive and beautiful—his rug-weaving, silver-smithing, and poetry—that it all cries aloud for its preservation; that its starving, but proud artisans get succor and immediate help—not in the future, but now, today and to last as long as America is a nation!

Respectfully,

PATRIC KILRAINE.

It lies not in our power to love or hate,
For will in us is overruled by fate.

The reason no man knows: Let it suffice
What we behold is censured by our eyes,
When both deliberate the love is slight.

Who ever loved, that loved not at first sight?
—CHRISTOPHER MARLOWE

MARLOWE WAS a brilliant poet and a clever playwright, but not in the same class with Shakespeare as a Horses & Women expert. Many people now deeply in love didn't love at first sight. It is the love that comes after deliberation and careful consideration of all angles that lasts.

PASSING BY: Ray Milland. Hollywoodian. Real name is Reginald Truscott-Jones, and don't forget the hyphen in the surname. Ray, whose brilliant performance in "The Lost Week End" did much to make the film the hit it was, is an interesting fellow. He spent his youth on a horse breeding farm in Wales. For a period he was a steeplechase jockey in England. At Sandown Park, in 1933, he figured in a spill in which seven horses went down at the same jump.

Ray Milland

A CARLOAD of laughs has just arrived on Broadway and done much to relieve the acute shortage of rib-tickling risibilities in that entertainment sector. Responsible are those two great laugh manufacturers from San Francisco, Paul and Grace Hartman. The vehicle bearing the chuckles, smiles and joyful chorales is an intimate revue titled, "Angel In The Wings." That the present can be listed high among the times that try men's souls there is no doubt. The Hartmans' show is a tonic for what ails most of us these days. Yes, sir, we can all use a few good laughs.

DOG AGAIN: From his Royal Highness, our Springer Spaniel Timmy, now sojourning at the dude ranch for dogs, we have received another communication of the type he would write if he could write. An excerpt from same follows: "Hi, folks! Since my last letter was printed in the column all the hounds around the ranch are hounding me hoping they can get some publicity. I tried to explain I never read the column but they won't believe me. One old gal here, an Airedale, even offered me her choicest bones if I would fix it for her to get a plug in the column. Her one claim to fame is once having Kin Tin Tin make goo-goo eyes at her."

WIFE TRAINING: "As for that husband who is having trouble with his wife who smokes in bed and starts fires," writes a Bostonian. "I had the same trouble with my wife. And so what? Every time she started to smoke in bed I took the cigaret away and handcuffed her. That ended that. Any time you want some valuable hints on wife-training let me know."

ASKING: Queries from clients. Q. What is Gypsy Rose Lee's real name? Where was she born? A. Louise Horvick. Her folks named her after the song which includes the line: "Every Little Breeze Seems To Whisper—Louise." She's from Seattle. Q. Wasn't the song "I Just Can't Make My Eyes Believe," as featured by Anna Held, translated from the popular Parisian music hall ditty? A. No, sir! Gus Edwards wrote that song. What a remarkable fellow Gus was! No man ever lived who influenced the lives of so many theatrical stars and entertainers as did Gus Edwards.

THAT GRANDMA: Los Angeles is certainly very proud of that twenty-eight year old local grandmother. I am being bombarded with clippings about this young woman, marked: "Can Brooklyn top this?" I am afraid the beautiful Borough across the bridge is baffled. One Angeleno (fancy name for Los Angeles native) says he knows this youthful grandmother "personally" and adds: "She looks to be about twenty-three. A snappy dresser. A wonderful ballroom dancer. Really a slick chick in every way. A trap drummer is one of the dance bands has a terrific crush on her."

EGGS: Take a pair of fried eggs, sunny side up. Do you know how to tell if the eggs are fresh? An expert on the subject says if the yolk stands up very high it is a fresh egg. If it is only slightly high it is about two weeks old. If the yolk is flat it is an old egg.

GET IT RIGHT: "As for Mainbocher, the dress designer, being a Frenchman that's ridiculous," writes a Brooklynite. "He's from Chicago. The first time I met him he was living at the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A." (NOTE: The man's right. Mainbocher is from Chicago and did live for a time at the Brooklyn YMCA.) Again I say how right Oliver Hereford was when he observed: "Into each life some Brooklyn must fall."

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Copyright, 1947, by King Features Syndicate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—The movie industry has firmly determined to eliminate from its payrolls ten persons who recently were hailed before a United States Congressional Committee and refused to say whether they were members of the Communist Party, a subversive organization.

Westbrook Pegler

If my ears do not deceive me, the magnates and their counsel meant these dismissals to be accepted as proof that they had cleaned house, absolutely, a little late, to be sure, but better late than never. That makes the score: Ten babies down; 100 more to go.

Illusion is the great art of the moving pictures. I hope the masters do not deceive themselves, but that is as it may be. One thing I can tell you plain, however: They haven't deceived the Committee on Un-American Activities.

They did not proceed against these ten until the industry had been dragged in leg-irons and handcuffs, so to speak, before the committee. The agents of the industry tried to ridicule the committee but the fact finally got across to the people of the United States that this committee represented and actually personified them. It is a "Committee of the House of Representatives."

THESE COMMITTEEMEN were elected by direct vote of the people of the United States to "represent" them. They are more representative of the American people than the sneering, supercilious continental intellectuals of Hollywood realized.

They look just like so many people of the United States. Some of the members make amusing little mistakes in grammar and figures of speech.

Those Hollywood intellectuals can sneer at these slips, but it is where they make a great mistake, themselves.

Many of the people of the United States also use double negatives and jumbled metaphors and they will not thank you for curling a lip at them. They will make you sorry.

All of a sudden, the men who represented the industry, stopped short and went into a solemn, frightened huddle in New York. The "people" were good and sore at them.

The "people" were supporting their "representatives" and they showed their sentiments in letters to the editors, to the theater managers and to the producers in Hollywood.

They were starting to show it at the box office, too.

TIE "PEOPLE" were good and tired of being lectured on "Americanism" by doctrinaires who either came here from Europe or stretched an ear toward Europe for their guidance.

The "people" were good and sore at Hollywood for scolding them and native American customs and traditions. Sore at Hollywood for advertising them to the world as failures at self-government and advertising the abundant life of the United States as a system composed 90 per cent of poverty and 10 per cent of disgusting vulgarity and cruel greed.

THE MOST REVOLTING vulgarity in the United States was not observed in the moral family circles of the decent well-to-do, depicted in the movies as the idle rich, but in the palaces and ranch-houses and camps and gambling resorts of the moving picture set.

Now, if Hollywood had an intelligent respect for the dignity and pride of the people of the United States, the industry would have taken the initiative, itself, long ago, to eliminate the harmful element.

How?
Well, how does Hollywood usually get rid of people who, for reasons of personal vengeance and racial bigotry are marked for elimination? By nodding them out, that is how. It has been done for years.

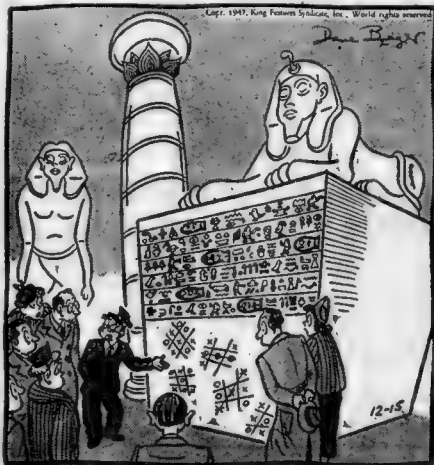

"Sorry, nothing today."

NOBODY IN HOLLYWOOD needed telling how to get rid of anyone without a trace and without risk of legal process. It is an old Hollywood art and custom.

But the industry wouldn't take the initiative and when the committee called the hearings, the Hollywood giants appeared to be still confident that by posing legalistic problems and repeating old European memory-gems about unfettered art and freedom of expression they could continue on.

This time, though, the "Representatives" of the "People" were sure-footed, cool and aggressive. They took no monkey-business. They were ready to prove with party cards and other party records that a group of pampered volunteers, forever smirking about our wicked system and the denial of opportunity, were what they were.

And so the industry curled up and quit and tried to make a virtue of an act done under compulsion. It fired ten men. But there are still a hundred left. At least a hundred!

"But THESE symbols, ladies and gentlemen, still have science baffled!"

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, MON., DEC. 15, 1947

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 15 (I.N.S.)—If you could talk to Sid Boehm, former Hearst reporter, about the diary he has just bought from a slave laborer who escaped from Siberia, you would be shocked and would realize that anyone who has sympathy for Communists is completely out of his mind.

The author of the diary has been working, since his escape, with the Secret Service in Washington. He is of Hungarian birth, and along with others, answered in 1940 the call from Russia for people who wanted good jobs. A veterinarian, he thought there would be a place for him. Instead of work, he was made a slave and served seven years in prison. Out of 1100 horses, 86 died in the long hard trek through the snow to Siberia, and he was given additional imprisonment for their death.

Boehm obtained the diary when he was in Washington gathering material for "Under Cover Man" which Columbia is making.

WILLIAM DOZIER is going to see to it personally that his star-bride, Joan Fontaine, doesn't become a comedy queen. True she's had a run of neurotic, or at least, over emotional heroines lately, what with "Ivy," "Letter From an Unknown Woman" and "Mayerling" coming up.

"All right," said Bill, "that's enough of that."

So he has bought "You Gotta Stay Happy," a new serial by Robert Carson, which starts soon in a national magazine. It's a frothy, romantic comedy and definitely on the gay side. Will Joan like it? Believe me, she's one married lady who admits her husband knows best.

I MET Mary Anita Loos and Richard Sale at dinner. They were getting ready to celebrate their first wedding anniversary and Richard's birthday, as well as the formation of the new Colonial Productions.

The movie was formed by Richard and Mary Anita in conjunction with Fanchon, who puts on the Fanchon and Marco shows in the motion picture theaters, and is well known in Hollywood.

Fanchon is the president, Richard, vice-president, and Mary Anita, secretary-treasurer.

Mary Anita and Richard will write the stories, and he will also direct. They would like to get "Happy Birthday," but that's a very expensive property, and Aunt Anita Loos has already turned down $300,000 for it—although, of course, her favorite niece has a good chance.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15—Mr. Dave Martin, managing director of the New York Athletic Club, was late for dinner at Gracie Mansion, which is as less majestic as being late for a command appearance at Buckingham Palace. We were talking of having him beheaded or exiled to Staten Island when the lord of the manor, Hizzoner Mayor O'Dwyer, said:

"Dave is being run ragged. I appointed him honorary police commissioner this afternoon and I wanted him to get the feel of things right away. So I've had his friends calling at two-minute intervals all afternoon, asking him to fix traffic tickets."

IF WE NEED any further proof of the fine job that Gen. MacArthur has done in Japan in making the Japs appreciate the American way of life, it's the choice of Rosalind Russell in "Flight for Freedom," as the outstanding actress of the year.

This is the picture made several years ago, based on the last flight of Amelia Earhart, and shows her flying to Japan to try and get information for the United States government. Many people thought the famous aviatrix was on a mission for Uncle Sam at the time of her death.

This would be the last picture you would think Japan would choose, for it carries a strong message of democracy as well as peace. Roz' nomination as Japan's favorite actress came directly from M. Mouskoui, owner of the largest theater chain in that country.

CHATTER IN HOLLYWOOD: I should have paid more attention to the long-distance telephone call from Mexico City, which said that Linda Christian and Tyrone Power saw much more of each other in Rome than she saw of Orson (Mars) Welles, and that Ty had called Mrs. Christian to tell her when Linda would be home.

Now Linda is in Hollywood and spending every possible moment with the handsome Ty. What a stir it caused when they walked into L'Aiglon together! However, Linda leaves for Mexico to spend Christmas, and Ty won't be able to fly there because he starts on his next movie Dec. 22.

Mae Marsh's daughter, Marguerite Arms, is being married to William Dolan White, her high school sweetheart, on Jan. 17, and what a host of memories that brings back.

When I first saw Mae she came to Chicago with D. W. Griffith and Lillian and Dorothy Gish, and appeared in "Birth of a Nation." She was about 16 and the most important dramatic actress of that day.

Unfortunately, Mae has never saved many of her stills or press clippings covering her 35-year career on the screen. So John Ford's wedding present of a leather bound album of Mae's stills from the 12 pictures in which she worked for Ford, is a welcome gift.

Now it's definite that the James Masons will be in Hollywood in March no matter which way their lawsuit with English-Producer David Rose goes.

This news came from New York just before James and Pamela took off Saturday for Toronto, where they will start transcribing, sponsored half hour dramatic shows for distribution throughout the empire.

They'll more or less commute between New York and Canada until the series is done, and of course they'll be back in New York for the Rose suit which comes up in February.

Here's a story, not about movies, but it concerns a subject of interest to practically everyone. Vincent Astor telephoned his brother-in-law, David Ellend-Bouverie, and said, "Can lender nodded sagely and observed that was nothing like actual experience. First Deputy Comr. Thomas Mulligan hugged himself joyfully and said Mr. Martin would speedily discover that a policeman's lot is not a happy one.

The conversation was not too easy to follow because the police glee club was roaring something about an old shillelagh owned by a paternal parent. This song may not rank among the great artistic arias but it can be sung very loud.

In fact I have heard former Comr. of Internal Revenue Joseph D. Nunan, Jr., practically empty a Washington hotel with just one rendition. I recall one time he inveigled FBI chieftains J. Edgar Hoover and you come down to the office? I want to talk to you about something special."

A call from David's rich brother-in-law was a command. When David arrived Astor said, "You know I haven't seen my sister Alice look so happy in years, and the reason for it, so I have a little gift for you." At which he handed over an envelope containing a check—hold your breath—for $1,000,000.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD collected at random: Honeychile (Patricia) Wilder leaves for Montevideo, Uruguay, to get a divorce from Alfredo Cernades. She came to America with Doris Duke to spend Thanksgiving. Cernades is a very wealthy South American.

David Selznick has canceled his plans to spend Christmas in Switzerland with Jennifer Jones. He's so proud of Irene and has been with her constantly since the opening of "A Streetcar Named Desire." I have always said I would like to see these two back together, and I say it again.

Craig Rice, mystery writer, admits she is engaged and will probably marry Hank Dumont after her divorce is final.

Marilyn Maxwell, singing at the Capitol Theater in New York, has been dating her ex-husband, John Cotto, who is a big hit in "Allegro."

Hume Cronyn is in New York with Jessica Tandy, whose success is another Hollywood triumph.

Now listen to this! Natalie Draper and Otto Preminger a twosome at Ciro's. Didn't I say that Otto is a charmer few of the gals can resist?

Billy Wilder admires Nan Wyn's singing and is a constant customer at Le Pavillon, where she gives forth each night.

Brian Aherne goes to Kansas right after the holidays to pilot his new plane back to the West Coast.

Fred Clark, the Michael Curtiz discovery, is on his way to New York to see Diana Lynn. He'd better hurry. She's still giving the smiles to Bob Neal.

The retired detective, Johnny Broderick, turned in down $100,000 for the rights to his life story. Johnny, by the way, spent a lot of time with Phil Regan, who was on the police force with him, while Phil was singing at the Persian Room in New York. Today I talked to Regan, who told me that a wonderful radio show lined up. Well, that boy can certainly sing.

The Ray Heindorfs welcomed a seven-pound daughter on Friday. He is the musical composer-conductor at Warners, and Mrs. Heindorf is the sister of Virginia Grey.

Clyde Tolson into accompanying him and it almost halted their disloyalty investigation because they were so deafened for a couple of days they couldn't hear the whispers of informants.

THE POLICE GLEE CLUB, however, eventually got finished with their old man's shillelagh and swung into a basso profundo thing about many brave hearts being asleep in the deep, causing Comrs. Wallender and Mulligan to wince and paraphrasing the last line, "Many brave cops are asleep on the beat." At this point the new honorary police commissioner made his belated entrance.

In a very stern voice the mayor demanded to know what

My Boston

By Alan Frazer

CLEANING OUT OUR POCKETS. Dave Miller, the Ritz-Carlton florist, hit the top of the beauty meter at that Sam Goldwyn luncheon. Dave decorated the tables with nearly 1000 blossoms—a lavish blend of blue iris and yellow pompons, an exotic dash of bright red euphorbia (first of the season) and obtained by Dave from the Waldorf-Astoria florist in New York)... Quotes heard and liked, "The world has few men with the God-given genius to do great things. The minute you destroy the incentive of our Edisons and Fords, you make Americans a mediocre people"... Sam Goldwyn: "My idea is that when mothers go to the movies, they can take their entire families and never blush at what they see on the screen"... Boston-bound, Steve Allison, who conducts the Latin Quarter's nightly two-hour radio broadcast, keeps one thumb on Broadway's pulse. Steve tells us the new musical "Bonanza Bound" will follow "Look, Ma, I'm Dancin'" into the Shubert.

OFF THE BACKS OF ENVELOPES. Charley Allen, Amvets commander, has an idea to save vets a headache over lost records. He wants the Veterans Administration to use their war-service serial numbers as the identifying symbols of all claims and insurance... The brilliant Republican political writer had stepped out to the washroom when he was introduced at that Millbury firemen's banquet. Sonny McDonough, only Democrat in the Governor's Council (never at a loss for initiative) stood up and bowed to the applause... More quotes. Press Agent Mary Frances Ackerman: "I know you'll mention the Ice Capades. I'm shooting 'em down like clay pigeons today. Everybody's saying yes. I'm on my goddness cloud"... Mary Frances has mellow brown eyes that would probably melt ice as quickly as a columnist's heart. She has a grand idea for a fashion matinee on ice next year... More Mary Frances. She covers her lip rouge with a colorless liquid that keeps the red where it'll do the most good... In the opposite corner, Anysee Sherman, Latin Quarter disk jockey, formerly Miss New York at Atlantic City, says that lip-stay doesn't work too well. Anysee returns to films in February.

FROM SCRAPS OF PAPER. Our slips are showing. Carl Brisson says we wrote Stockholm instead of Copenhagen, Swedish instead of Danish. We've fumbled in geography... With Mr. and Mrs. Garwood Van, we took memories of San Francisco's Chinatown to Ca-thue House. Gordon and Anita Chue made us forget the past, award the laurels to Boston... Not slighting Ruby Foo. Ruby throws that stuff called "Fire Magic" on the logs blazing in her beautiful living room. You might like those colored flames in your own fireplace, especially at Christmas... Marie Bonds, French-Basque bride of Ralph (one of the Fensgate Satire Room's twin organizers), listens to all the "gangstair" stories on the radio... More quotes. Comedian Alan Carney (Latin Quarter): "A bachelor is a man who never makes the same mistake once"... Joan Brooks, in the same show, got special permission to ride the destroyer Craven from Palermo to Naples during the war, to keep a show date for GIs... Nomi Henes, Boston attorney, who was a lieutenant on the Craven, had a reunion with Joan Saturday midnight.

REMEMBERING THINGS. Skater Dot Glazier, who sacrificed a shot at the Olympics to stay as a nurse at Children's Hospital, comes by her spunk naturally. Her mother was a nurse, served overseas in World War I, is a member of All Nurses Post, A. L. Her uncle is Gen. George Kenney of the Air Force... Thumbail profile. We found Eddie Davis, owner of the Fox and Hounds Club, eating nut at a rival night-club. But everybody knows that Eddie is broad-minded. He gives to more than 100 charities, draws no line of race or creed... Eddie's friends in Boston are legion... But he also has so many out-of-town friends that he is always reserving hotel rooms for parents with sons in college here... He even gets sons into college (including Harvard)... The Fox and Hounds Club was once the Slater residence. The Slaters are Mayflower stock. Many years ago, when England clamped an embargo on machinery, according to Eddie, a Slater went overseas, studied the textile machines, returned and built machinery from memory... That established the American textile industry, the Slater fortune. The mansion on Beacon St. was a by-product. Now, Eddie owns the mansion... Soon he will open a Torch Room, carpeted in black, walled in black velvet, with a ceiling of gilt and torches of gold. If the ghosts of those Pilgrim and textile-machine Slaters are lurking in that room, they'll hear nothing but torch songs.

ODDS AND ENDS. Sam Goldwyn scrapped $400,000 of film and started all over again while making "The Bishop's Wife." The picture opened last Tuesday night in New York at $10 a seat (for the Society for the Blind), and in London, Nov. 25, at $125 a seat (a command performance for king, queen and charity)... A young and successful Boston businessman addressed the students in a girls' junior college the other day. When he finished, he asked, "Now, have you got any questions?" After a minute of silence, one of the girls came up with these: "Is that your car outside? Are you married?"

the glee club all evening because a sycophantic bac once told him he had a good voice, asked:

"What does an honorary police commissioner do, if I'm not being too nosy?"

"He helps spread good will toward the police department," replied the mayor. "In New York, with our millions of visitors, good relations between police and public are of inestimable importance."

IT WAS QUITE an evening at home with Hizzoner and I. New York is in the hands. But I still haven't got around to telling about the mystery of "Mulle" at the mayoral mansion.

LEGAL LIGHTS SHIFT

Meanwhile, Fowler's lawyers here, Hugh M. Alcorn, political boss of Hartford County, Ct., and Cyril Coleman, mayor-elect of Hartford who takes office next month, served notice on the industrialist he will have to hire new lawyers when the deposition hunt moves to Palm Beach, Fla., Thursday.

Boss Alcorn, who was a county payroller for 34 years and now has three sons on public payrolls, gave up active participation in the deposition hunt two days after the proceedings opened Dec. 8 in Hartford. Coleman has been doing the work since then.

Alcorn gave up in the face of the devastating cross examination of Fowler's witnesses by Muriel's chief counsel, Leslie H. Vogel, and her ace investigator, W. C. Dannenberg, both of Chicago.

It was learned a Jacksonville, Fla., lawyer, Dewey Knight, will take over Fowler's end of the fight when nine witnesses are summoned there.

FACES EACH WITNESS

Fowler has thus far failed to substantiate any of the serious charges hurled at his sister, including alleged alcoholism and cruelty to the waifs.

Of the 10 witnesses who appeared against her last week, most of the testimony will very likely be ruled out because it pertained to acts of the heiress before the adoption took effect in July, 1939, according to Muriel's advisers.

The heiress, who had willed her $5,000,000 fortune to the orphans, exhibited little fear of the witnesses to come. She has faced each witness who testified so far, then returned for a rest at her farm over the week-end.

N. E. CASE ENDING

Lawyers for both sides expected the New England-New York-Florida phase of Fowler's depositions to end this week-end. The California phase is scheduled to start after New Year's Day.

When the deposition hunt is completed, all the evidence will be submitted to Superior Judge John A. Sbarbaro in Chicago, who has jurisdiction of the habeas corpus suit under which Muriel is seeking to regain custody of the orphans, now "famed out" by the industrialist to an elderly Evanston, Ill., couple.

Judge Sbarbaro set Jan. 12 as the deadline for resuming the hearing in his court.

Artist Cornwell's Inspiration Told

Because of its particular significance in our time, the eminent American artist, Dean Cornwell, rates a work he painted some 20 years ago as his favorite.

The painting, "Feeding the Multitude," depicts the famed miracle of the loaves and fishes, when Christ fed 5000 hungry pilgrims from a boy's meager lunch.

"Feeding the Multitude" will be reproduced in full color in next Sunday's American Weekly, magazine issued with the Boston Sunday Advertiser. Cornwell will discuss the inspiration for his painting in an accompanying article.

Unfair Practices Denied by Typos

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15 (AP)—The International Typographical Union contended today it had never been involved in contract negotiations between its Baltimore local and a group of printing firms and therefore could not be guilty of unfair labor practices as charged by the National Labor Relations Board.

The government and the printing firms, known as the Graphic Arts League, disputed this and asked the board for an order against a closed shop, feather-bedding and other practices they said were in violation of the Taft-Hartley law.

They asked for a blanket decree which their opponents insisted would revoke the entire collective bargaining policy mapped out by the ITU.

Four voluminous briefs—for the NLRB, the league, the ITU and its Baltimore local—went to Trial Examiner William R. Ringer today. He will study the documents and make his recommendation to the full board. Ringer heard testimony on the case in Baltimore and Washington.

HIDDEN TREASURE

MANILA, Dec. 15 (AP)—Twenty-five thousand dollars is tattered U. S. currency was found under a lumber pile by laborers in the inactivated American naval air base near Cebu, Central Philippines.

Investigating officials said they believed the money, found in a locked briefcase, was part of naval base funds stolen in 1945. Several Navy men were jailed for the theft.

Senate Aids Aliens to Beat Deportation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (INS).—A Senate official revealed today that more than 100 aliens facing deportation have been granted immunity against expulsion from the United States because of senatorial "courtesy."

Richard Arens, director of the Senate subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, disclosed that immigration authorities have agreed to stay the deportation of the aliens.

Edward J. Shaughnessy, special assistant to Watson B. Miller, commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, said there was an "understanding" with the Judiciary subcommittee, which is headed by Sen. Revercomb (R.) of West Virginia.

Arens explained that the understanding with immigration authorities was that on introduction of a private bill there is no deportation, except in exceptional cases, pending action by Congress.

More than 100 private bills have been sponsored in the Senate this year. They permit aliens facing deportation to remain in this country and to establish legal residence in the U. S.

Rep. Celler (D.) of New York, explained that a congressman, by introducing a private bill and then failing to request a hearing on the measure or any other action, ties the hands of immigration author-

Search for Irwin Resumed in Sutton

SUTTON, Dec. 15—Police and volunteers resumed search today of a 15-square-mile wooded area for the body of Eugene T. Irwin, 32, Dorchester auto dealer who vanished 11 days ago with $7000 in cash in his possession.

The search is being conducted by Police Chief Frederick H. Vultur of Millbury at the request of Boston police, who believe the dealer was kidnapped on a Boston street downtown, robbed of his cash and then slain in this town.

addition the rationing prices for bread and cereals are also being decreased, which means an increase in the real wages for workers and employees.

The new ruble currency, like the old, features the portrait of Lenin. The notes, however, are much larger than the old.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda printed photographs of the new money and detailed descriptions today. The chief innovation is a 25-ruble note, which did not previously exist. The old 30-ruble denomination was abandoned.

The other notes are for 1, 3, 5, 10, 50 and 100 rubles.

Pravda hailed the abandonment of rationing editorially as a victory for Socialism and said prices were rising in "the capitalist United States."

PENALTY FOR DELAY

The Soviet news agency Tass and the Moscow radio said scores of meetings were held last night throughout the nation at which the decree was discussed and approved as ushering in a better life.

The decree was issued by the Soviet Council of Ministers (cabinet) and the Communist party. It was signed by Prime Minister Stalin and Col. Gen. Andrei A. Zhukov, secretary of the Communist party Central Committee and a member of the Politburo. Most Russians with paper rubles on hand must convert them by Dec. 22. Those in remote districts are given until Dec. 23.

"Old money not presented by the fixed date will be cancelled," said the decree, "and will lose power of payment."

The reform does not affect wages. All factories and offices have been ordered to pay their employees this week in new money salaries for the first half of the month to enable them to get started under the new program.

U. S. Experts Analyze Red Currency Move

By JOHN A. REICHMANN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (INS)

Federal Reserve officials said today Russia's devaluation of the ruble was a virtual repudiation of her currency and indicates inflation within the Soviet is worse than outsiders had thought.

Washington experts also interpreted Moscow's decision in wiping out nine-tenths of the currency's buying power as a bold step designed to bolster the economy of her entire satellite bloc and extend opposition to the Marshall Plan.

J. Burke Knapp, associate director of research and chief foreign currency expert of the Federal Reserve board, said he could recall no other incident in recent history where a great power had virtually repudiated its own currency.

Men Who Get Up Nights Often Lose Their Pep

If you have to get up 3 or more times a night, your rest is broken and you may feel old and run-down before your time. So if you get up nights or suffer from bladder weakness, painful urination, backache, rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuritis, Lumbago and Neuralgia can't know what joy and comfort may be in store for them until they try Romind, which is the formula of a physician with 25 years' experience.

Romind has now been released to all good drug stores in the U. S. and Canada. Don't suffer another hour without getting Romind home.

Most druggists take as Romind a sure remedy for sleep. Try it. You will show how fast it may help you. You will prove to be the very medicine you need. Money refunded if not satisfied.

Morning Coughs Often Due to Bronchial Asthma

Do you cough and cough, especially mornings and at night? At times do you feel like you are tearing yourself to pieces trying to get rid of strangling mucus and still you choke, rasp for breath, wheeze and often can't sleep? The cause of these devastating symptoms may be recurring attacks of Bronchial Asthma. In such cases, the very first dose of Mendeo, a physician's prescription, usually starts almost instantly to loosen the mucus that clogged up, stuffy feeling in the bronchial tubes, then helps Nature loosen and remove thick, strangling phlegm. Thus helps you get good fresh air into your lungs and promotes restful sleep. Mendeo is not a smoke, injection or spray, but is a tasteless internal medicine which works thru the blood, thus reaching the bronchial tubes and lungs. Mendeo must satisfy in every way or your money back is guaranteed. Ask your druggist for Mendeo today, and take exactly as directed.

Analysts Christen Year 1947 Great Era of the Lady Drunk

Statistics from each District Court, not yet fully compiled, indicate 1947 is going down in history as the Great Era of the Lady Drunk.

There has been an astronomical increase throughout the state in the number of women arrested for drunkenness since Jan. 1, with the sharpest rise noted in the Boston area.

District judges were first to be appalled by this phenomenon, and several of them turned crusaders and are fighting for legal curbs to keep women out of barrooms.

Probation officers, welfare workers, children's societies, truant officers and other socially-conscious executives have also been working to stop the tide, without much success.

Figures are still rising. Each day there are a few more women drunks in district courts to be sentenced. On some days the number of women is greater than male drunks.

ONE CLINIC SET UP

A special commission on alcoholism was recently appointed by Gov. Bradford to formulate recommendations. On its board are three doctors noted for their work with women alcoholics.

Peter Bent Brigham Hospital has already set up an alcohol clinic, headed by Dr. Robert Fleming, psychiatrist specializing in curing women drinkers.

But none of these measures has succeeded in keeping women out of saloons, cafes or bars.

Judges are demanding sterner laws.

One suggested to the Legislature that licenses be withdrawn from at least 50 per cent of existing barrooms.

ROXBURY MECCA

Another—Judge Samuel Eisenstadt of Roxbury court—reported the large number of bars in the area make it a mecca for drinking women from other parts of the city.

"There have been all types of lady drunks in Roxbury court," he said today. "And they're not always from Roxbury."

"There are women with executive positions in banks who come over here to get drunk, nurses, teachers, ex-service women with good war records, and often women of high social position."

State Probes Blaze In Cambridge Plant
 48 The state fire marshal's office today was probing the two-alarm fire of suspicious origin which swept the three-story brick building of the Frozen Food Corp., in Mass. ave., Cambridge, causing damage estimated at $30,000. Deputy Fire Chief Charles O'Connor, whose men confined the flames to the interior of the building undergoing renovation, said Lt. Sylvester Mead of the fire marshal's office has been assigned to the investigation.

FIRES PLAGUE JAPAN
 TOKYO, Dec. 15 (AP)—Fire damaged 150 buildings at Yose, 25 miles west of Tokyo, the Kyodo agency reported. Another fire destroyed five buildings of the national hospital at Matsumoto and still another destroyed two hospital buildings at Mito.

TERN
 Liquid wool wash
BETTER FOR WOOLENS THAN THE FOUR BEST-KNOWN WASHING PRODUCTS!
 (All tests were made according to instructions on the label)

THE "HUNDRED-WASHING TEST" PROVES:

- 1 LESS SHRINKAGE WITH TERN: Fabric washed with TERN showed 2 to 3 times less shrinkage than fabrics washed with other products tested.
- 2 NO WEAKENING OF FABRIC STRENGTH WITH TERN: TERN is the only product tested that caused no loss of fabric strength after 100 washings!
- 3 LESS LOSS OF RESILIENCY WITH TERN: Only one other product tested equalled TERN at retaining woollens' resiliency.
- 4 LESS MATTING WITH TERN: Woollens stay softer, fluffier when washed with TERN. Showed practically no matting with TERN—appreciably less than with other products tested.

*United States Testing Co., Inc. Report #85601—Oct. 6, 1947.

TERN ENDS THE THREE MAJOR CAUSES OF WASHING DAMAGE TO WOOLENS!

- No Rubbing
- No Alkalies
- No Hot Water

Tern gets woollens clean gently...leaves them soft and fluffy—their life renewed, their colors refreshed.

Anti-Red School Bill Hit by ADA

Although it was recently organized as an anti-Communist organization, Massachusetts Chapter, Americans for Democratic Action, today opposed a legislative bill to prohibit members of the Communist party from teaching in Bay State schools.

The Massachusetts chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union today support Prof. Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. of Harvard University, who argued that the bill would "support Gov. Coolidge and the State administration" were not "to be trusted to carry out this bill which is in itself a form of authoritarian thought control and will not catch real communists."

Meyers Indictment Up for Decision by Wednesday

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (INS)—A federal grand jury is expected to decide tomorrow or Wednesday whether to indict Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers for perjury and inducement to perjury. If indicted, the wartime assistant purchased for the Army Air Forces would be liable on conviction to $10,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment on each count. It is understood the Justice Dept. plans to seek an early trial should the grand jury indict the retired general.

Homemade Treats

By MARTHA LEE
Household Editor

IT'S BEEN SO LONG since there has been a surplus in the sugar bin, some of us have forgotten about homemade candy.

Though store-bought fancy chocolates are a treat, the very fact that mother or sister has taken the time to make them gives even the simplest home-made confections more significance. Caramels and fondants are always Yuletide favorites and so are salted nuts. Here are a few special recipes to start you on your way.

CARAMEL COCOANUT ROUNDS

1 cup sugar $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt
1 cup light corn syrup
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup evaporated milk
Shredded coconut
1 tsp. vanilla extract
1 tbsp. butter or margarine
Combine sugar, salt and corn syrup and cook to 245 deg. F. Add butter or margarine and evaporated milk gradually so that the mixture does not stop boiling at any time. Cook rapidly to 242 deg. F. (or when small quantity dropped into cold water forms firm ball). Stir constantly because candy sticks easily at the last. Remove from heat; add vanilla extract and pour in greased small muffin tins $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick; sprinkle with coconut.

RIBBON LOAF FONDANT

$\frac{1}{2}$ cups sifted confectioners' sugar.
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup melted butter or margarine
Dash of salt
3 tbsp. evaporated milk
1 tsp. vanilla extract
1-3 cup finely chopped nuts
1 1-oz. square unsweetened chocolate, melted
2 maraschino cherries
Add sugar gradually to melted butter or margarine. Blend in salt, milk, vanilla and nuts. Divide in 3 equal portions. Add melted chocolate to one portion and press $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick into a small loaf pan. Press a second portion on top of the chocolate. Cut maraschino cherries into small pieces and add to third portion of fondant. You may wish to add a drop of certified red food coloring for a brighter pink. Press the pink fondant on the white candy. Chill until firm. Cut into slices $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick and then into serving pieces. Makes 3 dozen pieces.

SPICY TOASTED PECANS

1 tbsp. melted butter or margarine
 $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. shelled pecans
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. nutmeg
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. cinnamon
Stir melted butter or margarine into nuts and spread in shallow pan. Sprinkle with sugar and spices. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 15 to 20 min., stirring frequently. Makes $\frac{1}{2}$ pound nuts.

PRALINES

2 cups sugar $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup molasses 1 cup pecans
Cook sugar, molasses, and water together to 240 deg. F., or until a small amount of syrup forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove from heat and beat until creamy. Add vanilla and nuts. Drop by spoonful onto waxed paper to form wafers. Makes 14 pounds.

MOLASSES POPCORN BALLS

$\frac{1}{4}$ cups molasses
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar
1 tbsp. butter or margarine
About 4 quarts popped corn
Cook together molasses, sugar, and butter to 270 deg. F., or until a few drops of syrup form a very hard ball in cold water. Remove from heat and pour over popped corn, stirring constantly. With buttered fingers, shape into balls. Makes 3 dozen medium-sized balls.

PUFF BALLS: Replace popcorn with a large box of rice krispies, puffed wheat, or puffed rice.

SMALL, all-over patterns in two-toned and multicolored combinations take preference over large splashy designs in print dresses of top New York designers for spring. Some of the loveliest are Onondaga's. This striking black and white motif, of "Chinese coolies" was chosen by David Crystal for casual spectator sports fashion. The skirt is pleated for easy fullness and the neckline ends in a tied bow.—R.M.

HOMEMADE CHRISTMAS CANDIES

Latest Home Permanent

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE, Beauty and Fashion Editor

IF YOUR HAIR has just reached that in-between permanent stage when the ends are just beginning to straggle . . . or if you are just sighing for one of those perfectly grand cold waves but you can't see it in the budget . . . what with the Christmas list almost a mile long . . . stop sighing.

You can revive your old permanent . . . or give yourself a new one right in your own home while you do your housework or spend a quiet evening settled down with a good serial. For there is a home permanent that is heatless . . . get that . . . in which no heating equipment is involved and it does a grand job.

There is no possibility of burning yourself if your fingers aren't as agile and nimble as an expert's . . . all the while you're inducing those poker-straight tresses to bend into curls and waves.

This home permanent set embodies the new "cool" principle of waving . . . and is simple to use. If you can put your hair on an ordinary curler . . . you can use this permanent wave process and come up with smart-looking results. Thousands of women throughout the country have found hair comfort and beauty in these home perm sets. For not all women have all the time in the world . . . or the money . . . to have a perm done professionally.

METHOD IS SIMPLE

It has gotten so now that it takes a pretty smart expert to tell the difference between a permanent done at home or in a beauty salon . . . so proficient have women become in the art of home-administered waves and curls.

The package . . . which costs in all just about the same as an ordinary shampoo and finger wave beauty-salon given . . . contains two bottles . . . solution No. 1 and solution No. 2 . . . plus a packet of curlers just like the ones mother used.

After shampooing your hair, moisten with solution No. 1. Then put the hair up on curlers as directed in the instructions, easy, simple to follow. Wrap the head in a towel or turban and go about your business in the home for about three and one-half hours. You can run out to the corner store and do some errands if the head is wrapped turban-hat fashion.

At the expiration of the three-and-a-half-hour period rinse the hair with water while the curlers are still on and then saturate with solution No. 2. Remove curlers, rinse in clear water, then rinse again with solution No. 2. Set your hair as you desire . . . and you'll have a soft, natural wave that is not in the least harsh or brittle or fuzzy that will last for a long time.

For the name of this home permanent, heatless and harmless, phone the Beauty Dept., Liberty 2-2400, any day except Sunday, or write to me, care of the Boston American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ALL HAIR that curls and falls softly in undulating waves is not naturally-wavy hair but the expression of proficient fingers on the hands of women who believe in doing for themselves . . . such as a home-administered cold wave produces. We don't know whether Jane Greer's head of hair is naturally curly or beauty-salon-induced . . . but it sure is pretty. And that's all that counts.

No Excuse for 2d Mistake

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I have been going with a fellow for a month and a half almost every night. I care for him very much and he feels the same way about me.

I am 15, he is 21, and he has told me that he is only out for a good time.

About two months ago, I was jilted by a sailor with whom I had been going for a year and a half. We had planned to be married, so I had an affair with him, as I thought it was all right. Recently I told this fellow I am now going with about it and he felt bad about it, and last week I entered an affair with him, too, although I knew it was wrong.

I don't know where I stand exactly, and I do need advice. Please help me. I will do as you say. "DISGUSTED."

Dear "Disgusted": I don't know exactly what sort of advice you are looking for, nor what you expect me to tell you to do. You certainly have sense enough to know that you have been doing wrong. Do you need somebody to tell you to stop it and start behaving properly?

A girl with character would be careful not to make such a mistake once; let alone repeat it; and it is certainly particularly hard to understand in your case, since you say the chap you are going with now told you plainly he was only out for a good time.

My advice, since you ask it, is that you stop going with this boy and keep away in the future from his type. But I wonder if you are going to take it.

All-Around Holiday Costume Needed Now

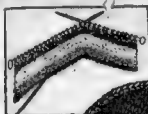

By EILEEN CALLAHAN

THE holidays are fast approaching, which means that every woman will want to have a special dress for the important occasions that are on the schedule. Many of these occasions are after five, yet before evening affairs, and so a dress that smacks of gaiety but is not too formal is what one needs.

Something on the order of the frock sketched today is just what the fashion doctor ordered. It's simple enough to be worn several times without being too much remembered, but elegant enough to hold its own in any gathering.

Zoe De Salle designed this attractive number, and did it in sand beige muslin crepe. The bodice, sleeves and scarf are cut all in one. The neckline is high and round. The sleeves are bracelet length and the circular skirt is cocktail length.

British Crewmen Merely Bored As Sub Stays Down for Weeks

LONDON, Dec. 15 (INS)—The British Admiralty announced that one of its submarines spent several weeks under the surface of the South Atlantic and returned safely, with no ill effects to its crew.

In order to test an improved form of the German Schnorkell air-purifying device, the 1250-ton submarine Alliance remained on the bottom of the ocean off Sierra Leone, West Africa.

Previously, the record for submersion had been two or three days.

A Lt. Martin said "it was hot and pretty boring" during the lengthy test. He added:

"We were able to smoke, eat and sleep as usual. The most vivid impression was the sensation of continual thirst."

4 Leading Electric Firms Face New Pay Demands

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (INS)—The CIO United Electrical Workers Union is preparing to demand a new round of wage increases from four major employers.

President Albert J. Fitzgerald said a conference has been scheduled in New York for Jan. 5 and 6 where delegates will draw up contract demands for Westinghouse Electric Corp., General Electric Co., General Motors electric division and Sylvania Electric Co.

Smart Set Gala Ice Benefit

By BETTY ALDEN

RIVALLING THE SPLENDOR of the diamond horseshoe at the opera will be the "diamond oval" at Boston Garden, Dec. 26, for the benefit opening night of the Ice Capades. The great oval of boxes surrounding the ice will be filled with fashionably dressed social leaders and celebrities for this outstanding social event of Christmas week.

Proceeds of the performance will benefit the Boys' Club Foundation of Boston to help youth of the city through such organizations as the Boys' Clubs, Girls' Clubs and Boys and Girls Camps. Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Cameron Church, Mrs. Ramsdell Harwood and Mr. and Mrs. Weston Howland head the list of sponsors for the benefit opening night. Mr. Church is president of the Boys' Clubs and Howland, Mrs. Howland president of the Girls' Clubs and Mr. Howland president of Boys' and Girls' Camps. Since tickets are at the regular price many people are using them as double barreled Christmas presents which provide a gala evening for the recipient and benefit needy children as well.

AMONG THE distinguished sponsors of the affair are Mr. and Mrs. John S. Amos Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hornblower, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ford, Mrs. Louis A. Frothingham, Mrs. Robert Herick, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Lapham, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Arnold.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. David, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher Jr., Mrs. Edward C. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Webster, Miss Mary E. Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs. Georges Doriot, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Pappas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Eaton Jr., Sinclair Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Hood.

DEBUTANTE CAROLINE RITCHIE, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Oliver H. Ritchie of West Newton will celebrate the beginning of her vacation from Wheaton by making her debut at a brunch party at her home Saturday.

VACATION at Stephens College, Missouri, begins Thursday after a round of traditional collegiate parties, concerts and caroling. Friends of Light, Free, and Love, a group of girls singing home to Greater Boston include Patricia Place and Elizabeth Balanda, Waban; Marilyn Tilton, Newton; Carol Ann Snyder and Shirley Collins, Newton Centre; Shirley Clifton, Milton; Charlotte Ann Underwood, Winchester; Priscilla Davis, Reading and Jane Wolf, Wellesley.

'A Christmas Carol' Scores

The holiday season was officially launched for the small fry the past week-end with The Tributary Theater's excellent presentation of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" at New England Mutual Hall.

It is doubtful that even the theater's most distinguished Broadway productions ever played to a more absorbed audience than attended last Saturday's morning and afternoon performances of the classic Christmas story.

Repeated piping inquiries, it is true, broke into the stage dialogue but the audience and even the actors must have appreciated the interested tribute indicated.

Elliot Duvey's first-rate dramatization and expert lighting aided by skilled performances on the part of Edward Finnegan, as Scrooge; Chester Robinson and Fattelle Ritchie, as Mr. and Mrs. Cratchit; Robert Milam, as the Ghost of Christmas Present, and youthful Joseph Magennis' Tiny Tim.

The very young may find "A Christmas Carol" over-long and frightening in the stage department but the deeply older and consciously superior group of young theater-goers were what is known as in their element at both Saturday matinees.

"A Christmas Carol" will be repeated next Saturday at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. P. D.

Mid-Season Pension Concert by Symphony

For the first time in several years the Boston Symphony Orchestra will give a mid-season Pension Fund concert. Since each Boston series is fully subscribed, the orchestra, under Serge Koussevitzky, may thus be heard by non-subscribers in Christmas week. The concert will be given on Tuesday evening, Dec. 23.

Dr. Koussevitzky will present an all-Beethoven program consisting of the Symphony No. 7, the Overture to "Coriolanus," and the Violin Concerto. The soloist will be Ginette Neveu.

Colored Official Says Fight Mob Unfair to Louis

Austen Lake

By AUSTEN LAKE

TAKE A LETTER: Take this one from Walter White, National Secretary for the Advancement of Colored People, who deplores the fight fan's and writer's tendency to smear Joe Louis's professional and personal reputation. He writes:

"As I listened to the crowd at Madison Square Garden (Dec. 4) boo Joe Louis for his unsatisfactory 24th defense of the heavyweight title, two ideas pressed my mind. I wondered if the eagerness to tear down one of the cleanest and best-loved idols of boxing of this or any other time, is not a yard stick of the sickness which infects mankind today."

Editor—As a veteran fight observer I reject Mr. White's theory that booing a pro athlete after a sub-standard performance is traceable to social distemper among the boozers. For it is the inherent right of any U. S. sport fan to call a show punk if it fails to meet his notion of the man's muscular skills. The American fight fan, which is a special breed, who pays the highest prices for some of the poorest exhibitions, reserves the right to jeer or cheer even such "best loved idols" as Ted Williams, Jack Dempsey, Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb. History shows that there was never a champion, whatever his line or time, who has not heard the wild razzberry. It is the democratic, though sometimes lamentable, privilege of the American fan.

CONTINUES MR. WHITE, "Jennie Lee, the brilliant British writer and MP, stated in London on her return from the United States, that American newspapers and radio had fed their readers during war such tales of disaster and gloom that it created a cynicism which continues to pervade American thought. Have we, as a nation, become so premeated with a desire to destroy that in 60 seconds we transform a public idol to a bum."

Editor—Bosh! Americans, if anything suffered a chronic optimism during war and our press was guilty of a buoyancy which often confused and irritated the combat G. I. on world battle fronts. I know because I was there. As to being "permeated by a desire to destroy" I would compare the generosity of this country toward helping to re-create world economy and relieve world ills with goods, money and manpower, against the defeatism, apathy and suspicion of other nations.

It's chop-logic to say that the momentary yammer of a fight crowd when a champion begins to totter on his pedestal, means that the National spirit is at low tide, or that they regard him as a "bum." It has always been the national habit of the sport pages, that fantastic jumble of he-man jargon to blow hot and cold. They endeared Louis as the "sepia assassin" when he biffed over Carnera, Baer, Sharkey, Braddock et al., and then labelled him an inept schoolboy when Schmeling (first coming), Farr and et ceteras gave him bad times. They did the same thing after Dempsey's fights with Fireman Jim Flynn and Tommy Gibbons. Yet both men stand as the most illustrious champions of modern time, both in character and technique.

Continues Mr. White, "The second idea which depressed me, was wondering what an individual has to do to merit steadfast recognition from a fickle public. Walcott's cleverness in keeping out of Louis' reach and his effective counterpunching which kept Louis off balance wiped out—at least for the time—all memory of what Louis has done for organized sport. Forgotten was that when he emerged on the prize ring horizon the business of commercialized mayhem was about as foul as the wrestling racket is today. The general public believed that fixed fights were a rule and that boxing contests which were on the level were a mistake."

EDITOR—DIFFERENCE OF OPINION make a horse race or a prize fight. I recall how British journalists, after the Louis-Farr fight, cabled accounts in the tone of larceny against Tommy. Reports of the radio broadcast as piped to England stressed Farr's furious rushes to the neglect of Louis' bosomeomings which rolled up a technical count and dyed the Welshman's brows with liquid rouge. England was convinced that their fistic idol had his pocket picked and that their ennobled science of Queensbury had been fouled by Yankee muckermism. It is always thus in what Mr. White calls "commercialized mayhem."

Continues Mr. White, "I don't want to be cynical. But a public which can so instantly forget a record like his and demand that the title be taken away from Joe Louis because a cagey opponent stayed out of harm's way, makes one wonder about the mental processes of such a public."

Editor—Nonsense sir! Let Mr. White concede that there was no suspicion of race prejudice involved, since both contestants were colored while the public and judges, who voted for Louis, were predominantly white. Pre-match opinion of the fight writers unanimously picked Louis to etherize his man within a few tedious rounds. Yet almost all conceded their error afterward to voting Walcott the winner. Nobody attempted to save professional prestige by alibiing.

Continues Mr. White, "I for one would not like to be in Walcott's shoes (next June). If anyone is wise to retire, my suggestion would be Jersey Joe."

Editor—Not met Jersey Joe, previously a peanut fighter, stands to earn $100,000 for a few moment's effort. The more I consider the more I am convinced that Mr. White's letter, printed in other papers too is a proportional teaser and I am, a sucker to taking his bait.

Three Notre Dame Players On Leahy's All-American

By FRANK LEAHY

Head Coach, Notre Dame University

It is with a feeling of real trepidation that we approach our selection of this year's All-American team. No matter whom one selects one is sure to overlook any number of other most deserving lads. With this in mind we go about naming what we consider to be the top dream team of the greatest season in history.

First we pick a center around whom to build a team. Our man is Chuck Bednarik of Pennsylvania. Chuck is 220 pounds of all man and stands six feet three. Yet despite his greatness, Bob Scott of Navy could easily be named in Bednarik's stead. Nevertheless we stand by our pick of Bednarik.

As guards we place Steve Suhey of Penn State and our own Ziggy Czarowski, although he played regularly at tackle for us. This pair can do anything asked of guards and do it superbly. Joe Steffy of Army and Bill Fischer of Notre Dame helped make the task difficult from a selector's point of view and it was hard to overlook Yale's John Prehlich and Georgia Tech's Bill Healey.

George Connor of Notre Dame and John Ferraro of Southern California stood out in our opinion as tackles, although you could gaze in almost any direction and find worthy aspirants for the position. Bob Davis of Georgia Tech, for instance, was a lad who seldom made an error at his job. Goble Bryant of Army and Lou Agase of Illinois had class written all over them.

With the dreads of outstanding ends splashed across the sports pages week after week, picking two for first place was indeed a trying task. However, we name Paul Cleary of Southern California and Bob Mann of Michigan as our final choice. Close behind them came Swiaki of Columbia, Ford of Michigan, Poole of Mississippi, Bungardner of Texas and Hart of Notre Dame.

Now for the backfield, Johnny Lujack, one of our own lads, stood out at quarterback. We doubt that the country has seen his superior. Johnny could do everything with sureness and ease. His passing was a thing of beauty. His running far above the average and defensively he was the finest we have ever seen.

Bob Chappuis of Michigan is our choice for left halfback. Bob was truly a great back running, passing or on the defense. At right half we have Doak Walker, Southern Methodist's great triple threat. This lad could and did rise to supreme heights at crucial moments.

Our fullback is Rip Rowan of Army. Rowan did a magnificent job throughout the season and rose to his peak in the supreme test against Navy.

We feel almost like apologizing for leaving off such great backs as Bobby Layne of Texas, Harry Gilmer of Alabama, Tony Minisi of Pennsylvania, Ray Evans of UPSY-DAISY—Michigan's Bob Chappuis, it is said, is as clever at griddle as he is on gridiron. And he's good enough on grid to make Frank Leahy's All-American eleven at fullback.

Kansas, Charley Conerly of Mississippi and our own Torrey Brennan among others we cannot name because of space limitations but there were only four places to fill.

Well, there it is, fans. We did our very best to select an All-American team that would stand up under any test. If you disagree with our selections, please remember our opinion was purely a personal one.

Cleveland Wins Title

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP)—Cleveland's powerful Browns owned the championship of the All-America Football Conference for another year today and it looked like they would continue to dominate the young professional circuit as long as Otto Graham and Marion Motley retain their health.

The Browns defended the title with bone-crushing authority yesterday by flattening the New York Yankees, 14-3, on the frozen, snow-lined turf of Yankee Stadium, and, as usual, it was Graham's passing and Motley's running that gave the Ohioans the edge.

An overcast throng of 61,897 watched the conference's western division titlists score in the first and third periods to spoil the bid of the eastern champs to win the flag on the same grounds where their baseball counterparts had captured the World Series only 10 weeks before.

It was even more decisive than a year ago, when the Browns won the inaugural playoff by subduing the same Yankees, 14-9, at Cleveland.

A 52-yard run by the ponderous Motley, longest of the day, set up the first Cleveland touchdown, scored on a sneak by Graham from a yard out after he had flipped a short pass to Mac Speedie to eat up six of the last seven yards.

NASHUA TOPS PERES

NASHUA, N. H.—The Nashua N. H. A. defeated a strong Pere Marquette team from South Boston, 66 to 44, here, yesterday day.

BILL SOUTHWORTH of the Braves looks over the averages of some of his farm players. His finger points to Alvin Dark, sensational Milwaukee shortstop, who is expected to grab off a regular berth with the Tribe.

Gulfstream Hit As Tourists Snub Miami Gougers

By JACK CONWAY

If you have sand in your shoes and are looking forward to spending part of the winter in Florida, you won't have to mortgage your future to do so. Joe Cashman, who recently attended the major league baseball meeting at Miami, told me that business is off 40 per cent in the Magic City.

"There are many vacancies in the hotels and also in the apartment houses," said Joe. "A party of six of us attended one of the biggest night spots in town, and we felt lonesome in the place. Prices are still high with the customers shying away from them."

This condition should force prices down.

The Gulfstream Park mutual handle tells the story of money in Florida better than anything else. It only reached $622,000 last Saturday. In the carefree boom days, a million dollar handle was always a certainty at any of the Florida tracks on a Saturday.

Miami relies on boom days more than any city in the country with the possible exception of New York. It prefers a new army of tourists every two weeks. One runs out of money very fast in Florida, and the owners of hotels and amusement places like to see the fresh money coming in with visitors from the North.

Calumet Farm Horses at Hialeah Park

Tom Shehan, steward at Rockingham Park and feature sports writer, has joined the publicity staff at Hialeah Park. Tom writes that Calumet Farm has a big string of horses at Hialeah. His letter in part follows:

"There are plenty of apartments down here, but you have to go for the Crown jewels to rent them because the landlords are holding out in expectation that the tourist trade will be coming down soon.

"I haven't had a chance to go out to Gulfstream yet, but I won't be lonesome for horses as there are plenty at Hialeah Park. One of the more colorful sights going by my door every morning here at the track are the various sets of Calumet Farm horses. Ben and Jimmy Jones take them out 14-16 at a time and there are three sets of them. They usually spend an hour or more on the track with each set, standing them in the starting gate to get accustomed to it, and jogging them around the track. Each exercise boy and jockey with the Calumet is equipped with a sweater the color of devil's red used in the Calumet silks. As I've said before, they make a colorful turnout.

"Top horses in the Calumet barn are Armed, Citation, Bewitch, Fervent, Faultless, etc. They're being trained for the McLennan, the Flamingo and The Widener, the top feature events here at this meeting, which gets underway Jan. 16 and continues until March 2.

"A New England racing fan would feel right at home around Hialeah in the morning. Charley McLennan, of course, is the racing secretary and Sydney Brown is his assistant. They were both at Suffolk Downs.

"Among the horsemen you would recognize Phil Bieber, Harold Young, Ivan Parke, Lyman Brusie and others. Brusie told me that Bill Hodson, who has been ill at the Harley Hospital in Boston, is on the mend and will leave for here this week. He has a home in Miami Springs.

"The Miami Open is under way. Claude Hastings, who used to pitch baseball with Al Pierotti and others, around Boston, is here for Wilson Sporting Goods. Their players in the tournament are Sam Snead, Bob Hamilton, Ellsworth Vines, and several others.

"Ben Hogan has been bothered by a bad back, but he is hoping to be right by the time the last two rounds are played. Snead was bothered by a bad back here a year ago and went out and won the tournament. Maybe, that back of Hogan's has some significance. Ben, incidentally, will publish the golf book I have been giving him a hand with in March."

Zanelli and Greco Both Like to Punch

Ralph Zanelli and Johnny Greco, who will toss punches in a ten-round bout at a Goodwin A. C. show at the Garden tonight, have similar fistic styles. Each likes to parade to close quarters and let his blows fly.

Zanelli at the age of 32 staged a surprising comeback, twice beating Al (Red) Priest, Greco has been a headliner in the New York Garden for several years. I saw him knock out Tony Janiro. The latter is a fast, flashy boxer, but he could not stand up before Greco's body attack.

60 Rough Maple Leafs Have To Settle for Another Tie

The Toronto Maple Leafs are passing through a siege of Boston failures that once fell to the lot of the luckless Detroit Red Wings of a few years ago, in their inability to win on Boston ice. Last night, for example, the Maple Leafs again had to settle for a 1-1 tie, this carries the extraordinary run of failures to win in Boston to 14 games, dating back to March 6, 1935.

The Leafs played without their great scorer Syl Apps, league leader. But so, too, the Bruins were without Milt Schmidt and Fern Flaman. Ken Smith was not himself because of a heavy cold.

The league leaders from Toronto apparently were intent on winning or else. That else part of it centered around the fiery game the Leafs played over the first 40 minutes of action.

The Leafs were full of fire and dash. High sticks, charging, holding and boarding were quite the rage with the Toronto boys over most of the game.

Butch Keeling, old Ranger star, now refereeing, who hasn't been sufficiently firm in past games, showed his mettle last night when he chased 16 players to the penalty box. It's just as well that he did. Had the boys continued at their pace somebody might have been hurt.

It was the fifth tie for the Bruins in a 10-game streak although they did manage to eke out a 1-0 win over Canadiens during that long spell.

It was one of the Maple Leaf younger players who set the scoring pace when Vic Lynn scored after 1:10 in the first period on a pass from Kennedy.

"It remained for Wally Wilson to put the Bruins back in the game. He did it in approved fashion. After 19:40 of the second period Wilson drove a 30-footer into the left hand corner that Gus Broda hasn't yet seen.

Wally picked up a Murray Henderson shot that bounced off a Maple Leaf defense man. Wilson crossed the defense and with a right winger as a decoy, let go himself and scored from 30 feet out.

It was a neat play that caught the Leafs completely by surprise. It was Wilson's ninth goal of the winter. And the Maple Leafs twice let him out because he didn't have it.

Ralph Frankie Brimsek and Gus Broda turned in brilliant net work. Frankie had 16 stops to 25 for Gus. Both goalies were hard pressed as the forwards bore in on them.

Milt Schmidt and Fern Flaman, the Bruin casualties, watched the game. Flaman expects to start working out this week with the hope that his bothersome knee will respond to Trainer Win Green's daily treatments.

As a result of the deadlocked game and also the Ranger-Detroit 1-1 tie, the teams remain in their same positions. Detroit is second with a one-point edge.

Redskins Put It Over. Hub Yanks

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 15—Sammy Baugh dominated the going as the Washington Redskins hung on a 40-13 win over the Boston Yanks here yesterday, before 33,226 enthusiastic fans who found the chilly weather most uncomfortable.

Sammy, as alert as ever, didn't let the tough going at the Griffith Stadium turf turned soft and treacherous. He fired three touchdown passes and set up two others.

George Preston Marshall, owner of the Redskins and unlamented former owner of the Boston franchise, attempted to add some "azle-dazle" for the crowd's benefit. With all the Christmas fan-fare, jingle bells, and confetti snow George Preston had arranged to have a helicopter, with the middle of Griffith Stadium.

It landed O.K. but the pilot's sense of direction was not as good as Sammy Baugh's. He landed his machine on a roof top.

Pics Look Bad Saturday and Then Bounce Back Sunday

As the Eastern Amateur Hockey League and the Inter-provincial League games develop the uncertainty of the Olympics' success or failure is most pronounced. For example, Saturday night they were completely blanketed by Ottawa 7-3 yet yesterday afternoon at the Garden they came back at the Atlantic Sea Gulls and posted an 11-3, which in hockey circles is considered a severe shellacking.

Ed McAffrey—up from the Junior "Pics" and playing his first home game, played good at defense and helped the cause no end with two tallies. Another new addition, Al Yourkewicz, filled in ably at defense as did Bob Newton in the line.

Ray Manson started things off with the game just 22 seconds old when, with the aid of Marcel Filion and Johnny Murethick, he beat Jerry Courteau. Gull net minder, Luc the Italian, it was the first of three for Manson. Murethick then took a Manson pass for another marker and before the period ended, Ed McAffrey soled to put the Pics in front, 3-0.

Halfway through the second frame, Manson took over and got his other two goals. The first came on a feed from Murethick and the second on a Cliff Thompson pass.

Here the Gulls broke into the scoring column when a Foster-Kazarian combine got by Pat Bohemer. Foster then went down with Durancieu for another Gull tally.

Steve Gaber got one back for the home team when Yourkewicz and Arnie Kullman set him up.

New England School Champion May Get Annual Invitation to 'Gator Bowl

By MIKE GILLOOLY

EN ROUTE TO BOSTON, Dec. 15—The West Coast has its Rose Bowl game on New Year's Day with the champions of the Big Nine and the Conference as rivals. Jacksonville, Fla., might very well be annual host to the New England Class A champion.

If the rumors flying everywhere materialize into fact, 'Gator Bowl fans were impressed by the Nashua eleven last year and where the New Hampshire team broke the ground, Medford's Mustangs started a foundation of friendly relations that could offer a grand objective for the Bay State teams.

Kiwanians sponsors of the game liked the spirit of the Class A invader they were impressed by the host of friends who followed the team South to pour new money into the local tills they certainly must have appreciated the diplomacy and tact of Coach Tom O'Connor who had no comment on a penalty that cost his team what might have been his greatest victory in the streak of 16 undefeated contests.

There's nothing official about this annual invitation but it has been whispered and bantered about it only needs a bit of impetus to make it become a reality. The faithful penalty that spelled a scoreless tieback instead of victory could have caused less colorful coaches to screech "robbery."

Although it hurt to remain silent in what could only have been a losing argument, it was the only course open under the circumstances. Even fans who had been rooting for their home team of Lee were saying that Medford should have won if they had to admit it.

Because the Mustangs made the difference so distinct starting out on the trip a week ago, the kids just couldn't wait to get started; now they wiggle and twist with impatience every time the train slows down. They want to get back to their home town in a big hurry for the first time since Friday.

They're showing spirit again; they've lost the glum feeling that went along with their deadlock when they expected to win.

Guards Dick Mahoney and Eddie Quinn both report feeling better. Mahoney has had his infected tooth remedied. Quinn's tricky appendix has been temporarily averted. Their loss the night of the game together with the fact that their particular posts appeared so vulnerable probably forced him, Zona and Bill O'Keefe to greater efforts.

It's almost a game now among the boys to try to guess who'll win at South Station to meet them today. They know in their own minds that they're in for a gigantic reception but they don't dare mention it.

Plan Reception For Medford Team

The Medford Mustangs are in for a big surprise reception when they arrive back in Boston tomorrow according to Les Godwin, chairman of the Medford Citizens Committee.

The school band and hundreds of relatives and friends will meet the Medford train at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at the South Station.

The team will then be transported back to Medford Square where the entire student body of the high school, freed from classes, will be lined in double columns to form the triumphal arch.

Stores and business houses in the Medford area are preparing banners and placards to add impetus to the rally.

The entire reception committee will then march en masse to the high school auditorium where the team will be feted in a giant rally.

TRIP FOR CHELSEA

Chelsea High School football players will be rewarded for this season's efforts with an educational trip to Washington, D. C. following Christmas.

Plans have been formulated to raise funds for the trip. A dance will be held Friday and Saturday. Coach Henry McCarthy will make the trip with the boys, which is planned to start Dec. 26.

Harvard and Terriers Face Sturdy Opponents

Once beaten Harvard and undefeated Boston University have their work all out for them when they face Syracuse and Bradley, two of the nation's better teams, at the Boston Garden tomorrow evening. A win for either home club would boost the stock of New England basketball considerably. The invading forces were expected at the Manger early this evening, and will hold light work-outs upon the Garden floor tomorrow morning.

To win, the home teams will have to shackle two fellows who were named to the Helms Foundation second All-American teams last winter, Bill Gabor, of Syracuse, reputed to be the Orange-men's greatest hoop star in history; and David Humerickhouse, second in scoring last winter to Paul Unruh, Bradley's starting center.

Where Syracuse's offensive strength is divided between Gabor and Newell, Bradley employs the typical mid-western wide open attack that puts the emphasis upon rolling up the points. Syracuse whipped BU last winter 73-46, with Gabor scoring 32 points, while Harvard, in three meetings with Bradley since 1941, has yet to defeat the Braves.

This may well be called "basketball week" at the Garden, since tomorrow's double-header is the first of four hoop programs. On Saturday, Dartmouth meets Holy Cross and Harvard faces Boston College. The Celtics play on Wednesday and Friday nights. There will be afternoon schoolboy triple-headers on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, while Saturday's festivities, consisting of six games, start at 11:30 a. m. The last of this marathon has the Harvard freshmen clashing with the Boston College Eaglets.

Strange Teams Play Well But Fans Don't Go for Lynn Game

It is quite obvious that if the Lynn Shoe Bowl is to continue the promoters will have to extract a page from the book of the fight clubs and hire a matchmaker. The game between Marianapolis Prep (Thompson, Ct.) and Bullis Prep (Silver Springs, Md.) was, in truth, a burly football game. The 4300 fans on hand were not disappointed in the crashing action. The sole note lacking in the Manning Bowl game was intimate familiarity with the contestants.

The hardy football fan is the only one who will brave a 27 degree winter day to sit for three hours and a half in an ice chilled stadium. Other fans must be attracted by teams of local stature. A postseason football game between two top-notch local high school teams or between one local team and a leading team from some other section are the two combinations which will click at the box office.

As for ability of the contestants the sponsoring Lynn Post 7 of the Italian-American War Veterans could not have done a better job. Bullis Prep had beaten great Army and Navy freshmen teams. Marianapolis had won seven straight games. The result was a bitter 6 to 6 deadlock. The fans were thrilled.

Next year, with a local team in the billing, the spacious Manning Bowl crater could be filled regardless of weather.

Individual star of the game was halfback Walter Belardinelli, Marianapolis. It was a matter of only a few hours that gave Walter a maroon jersey of Marianapolis rather than a yellow one of Bullis.

"We almost had him on our side," said Al Grossman, Principal at Bullis. "Jack Haggerty, of Georgetown, called me on the phone one day last year and said, 'there is a terrific halfback down Connecticut way that would like to go to Bullis. We contacted Belardinelli but only 24 hours prior to our call he had decided on Marianapolis.'

Belardinelli will go to Notre Dame in September. Jack Maddox, coach of Bullis, was impressed with the defensive work of his quarterback, Ted Kulkowski. "I used Ted mostly on defense. I would not be going on offense," he stated by stating that Ted was responsible for close to 60 per cent of our tackles. He was immense."

The promoters of the game set in the box office as the crowd moved into the streets. "We won't have much money left in the till after we get through settling with the two football teams and paying off the many expense bills," stated one member of the committee. "We made an agreement to pay Bullis a $2000 guarantee. We will settle with Marianapolis for about $1000."

"TAKE THIS, ZANELLI"—Johnny Greco, holder of the Canadian welterweight championship, punches the bag as he prepares for his bout with Ralph Zanelli, New England middleweight champ, in a 10-round feature at the Garden tonight.

Zanelli's Future at Stake As He Fights Greco

By JACK CONWAY, JR.

Two welterweights, Ralph Zanelli, New England's best, and Johnny Greco, Canada's best, will meet in a ten-round fistie feature at the Boston Garden tonight. Greco, Montreal, will enter the ring close to a 10-8 favorite to beat the Providence fighter. Greco, at 24, is eight years younger than Zanelli. The Canadian welterweight has had some fine wins over Beau Jack, Tony Janiro, Bobbie Ruffin and other top notchers.

Ordinarily Greco would have been a much bigger favorite to beat Zanelli. The fact that the fruit ripens in mellow age is true for Zanelli as it is for Jersey Joe Walcott. For Ralph, on the waning end of his career, beat Red Priest twice to step out of his weight class and take the N. E. middleweight championship. The first Priest-Zanelli fight at Providence was thought to be a fluke when it was reported that Ralph had won 11 of 12 rounds. But a short while ago at the Boston Garden a large crowd was on hand to see Ralph win 7 of 12 rounds.

Zanelli is the hard crushing type of fighter who intends to throw punches every minute he is in the ring. Greco has the youth and is approaching the prime of a fighter's life.

"Those guys will have to wear different color trunks when they fight or nobody will be able to tell them apart," quipped Frankie Ross following Greco's Saturday workout. "I never saw two fighters look so much alike."

Frankie Doyle, Greco's trainer, has had Johnny in Boston since last Wednesday. "We came up from New Haven early for the fight so the local fight fans would be able to get a look at Johnny."

The Canadian champion put on heavy sweaters yesterday afternoon and went for a long jog along the Charles River Esplanade.

Greco likes to keep his leg muscles loose.

The winner of tonight's fight will be right in line for a real money shot, either here in Boston or in New York. In the event that Zanelli wins tonight he will become one of the most legendary figures in New England boxing history.

Jimmy Carter, Cambridge, is returning to form. Jimmy will have a chance to demonstrate his ability when he meets Charlie Smith in a preliminary.

Dulio "Deoley" Sappolo, Italian fighter, will be on deck for his eighth straight win when he meets Jimmy Lake. Lake fought a 10-round draw with Harry Verstein in his last Boston appearance. Sappolo knocked out Mike Fischer in his last Boston start.

Konrad New Ice Thriller

In sports, when a newcomer has a great freshman year, the experts always withhold judgment and say, "Wait until we see what he does next year."

Whenever an actor scores a great hit in his first starring role, critics generally refrain from tabling him as an established star until he continues his fine work in subsequent shows.

Using these standards as a gauge, Alan Konrad, sensational youngster of the Ice Capades of 1948, which opens at the Garden on Dec. 26, has won his spurs.

Konrad moved into a principal spot in last year's revue after traveling with the company nearly a year doing small parts and taking intensive training with the Capades instructors.

His excellent work combined with his youth and enthusiasm made him a popular favorite with ice fans throughout the nation. Here in Boston last year he stepped into Bobby Specht's place when the star broke his leg.

Alan's ballet training has been an important factor in his success on skates. It has enabled him to make prodigious jumps with graceful ease that makes his number a thing of beauty to the spectators.

This year young Konrad gets a bigger and better opportunity to demonstrate his talents and he proves that his first year success was no "flash in the pan."
